Lady Golfers Elect Officers for 1964

By ELLI BLAUMANN
MI 7-1465

A luncheon held recently at Sylvan Golf Club served two purposes. Not only were 30 hungry lady golfers fed, but this year's winners of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Golf League were also announced.

First place A flight winner was Mrs. Fran Clark, and most improved in that group was Mrs. Harold Pierce. B flight winner was Mrs. Martha Blackwell, and most improved golfer was Mrs. Verna Stewart, while Mrs. Adam Nowicki won both honors in the C flight group.

The ladies, who play at Sylvan

Glen once a week during the summer, have already chosen next year's officers. Mrs. Ruth Elinger will serve as president, Mrs. Mary Lou Pietsch as secretary, and Mrs. Harriet Lemon as treasurer. Keeping the scores straight will be the responsibility of Mrs. Pat Bilotta and Mrs. Fran Clark.

FATHER ROBERT Lawrence Sempowski, the 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Z. Sempowski of Riverside Drive, has just completed his novitiate year in the Carmelite Order at New Baltimore, Penna.

He is now at the central school of the Order at Niagara Falls, Canada, where he will begin his second year of college. His main studies will consist of theology and philosophy.

The Sempowskis have also just seen daughter Sharon, a June graduate of Marian High, off to Mount St. Joseph College, near Cincinnati O., to study nursing. A cousin from Corpus Christi, Tex., Patricia Rodholm, is also a freshman on the same campus, so presumably the girls will be able to break away from their home-work once in a while to get together.

THE OUT-OF-TOWN guest at the James W. Murphy residence on Kirkshire is Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Della Benedict, who is here from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma until Sept. 30.

Mrs. Murphy invited neighbors Mrs. Robert MacLean, Mrs. Donald Easton, Mrs. Albert Lalpold, Mrs. C. Mitchell, Mrs. S. Swineberger, and Mrs. H. Haydon in on Friday to meet Mrs. Benedict over coffee and cake.

Also entertaining folks from afar are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sken and daughter Donelle. Mr. Sken and Mrs. Walker of Scottsdale, Ariz., who visited the Skens last week will be back after a trip to Canada. They plan to get together with mutual old friends before returning to Arizona.

OVER 300 women are expected at Oakland Hills Country Club on Thursday, Oct. 3, when for the first time the Beverly Hills branch of the Woman's National Golf Association will host the District One meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

Members of 56 clubs will be on hand for the morning business meeting, luncheon, and afternoon topic of discussion, entitled "An Afternoon of Flower Arranging."

Mrs. Waldron Templemar and Mrs. William Penney, president and vice president, are in charge and arrangements. They will be assisted by Mrs. John Musto and Mrs. Everett Humphris, who will decorate for the affair.

Mrs. Robert Watson and Mrs. Doreen Mould, will handle reservations and Mrs. William Dehn will be responsible for staging. Program chairman will be Mrs. John Boyton and Mrs. Ray Becker, while Mrs. Ralph Thomson is handling the publicity.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. William Basse, chairman; Mrs. Philip Armstrong; Mrs. Donald Boucher; Mrs. Donald Conrad; Mrs. James Lawson; Mrs. Robert McKee; Mrs. Adam Nowicki; Mrs. David Raup; Mrs. Lloyd Somes; and Mrs. Ralph Thomson.

MISS GLORIA McIntyre, daughter of Mrs. Hugh McIntyre, has returned to her senior year at Alma College, after an interesting and worthwhile summer. Gloria, who is majoring in sociology, was chosen by the Presbyterian Board of National Missions to work this year with underprivileged children in Detroit.

Qualified people from all over this country and from as far away as Nigeria were in Detroit this summer, under the auspices of Presbyterian Neighborhood Services. Teaching at day camp, Bible school, and organizing teen

Combine Their Talents to Assure Success

Birmingham and Bloomfield residents are joining forces to assure success of the International Institute's Treasure Shop Donation Tea slated for 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, at 111 E. Kirby, Detroit. Mrs. Ronald H. Pepin (from left) of the Hills is chairman of the event which will feature international pastries at the tea to be followed by a program at which George Tolbert, floral designer, will lecture and give demonstrations of flower arranging. Assisting with plans are Mrs. Frederick B. Fish of Birmingham and Mrs. William H. McLaughney of Bloomfield. Admittance is the donation of an "artistic treasure", small or large, to stock a booth at the Institute's Old World Market, held annually in mid-November.

THE WEST Beverly Hostess Club had its first fall meeting at the Riverside home of Mrs. Harry Demorest, who was assisted by co-hostesses Mrs. Alfred Jensen and Mrs. Harold Seymour.

Plans were discussed for the club's autumn tea which will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 8, from 1 to 4 in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Lane, 19117 Saxon Drive.

At the tea, the West Beverly Sewing Group will have reception work on display. This organization is a member of the Needlework Guild of America, which performs a valuable service by sewing for needy children.

Women who list sewing among their accomplishments, and are free on the second Tuesday of every month, are invited to join. Mrs. Herbert Wyatt or Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft, may be telephoned for further information.

News Revealed

Mrs. Ada Jenkins of Plymouth announces the engagement of her daughter, Peggy Joyce, to David M. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Scott of Birmingham. The bride-elect attended Western Michigan University and her fiancé is attending the University of Michigan. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

nent, departed from companions in Amsterdam, Holland, to travel by train, over-night boat and another train to surprise her parents and sister upon their arrival at the Park Lane, London.

The Campbells arrived home in time for another anniversary. On Sunday a family birthday party was arranged in honor of son Colin who has returned to the University of Michigan to earn his master's degree in business administration.

MRS. HAROLD W. H. Burrows entertained at the Detroit Club at a luncheon attended by Mrs. Graydon Walker of Gross Pointe and Mrs. Jesse P. Judd of Bloomfield Village and daughters Linda Walker and Nancy Judd.

The party provided an occasion to introduce the two daughters who will attend Bennett Junior College this fall. Linda is a sophomore and Nancy as a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart W. Frankford with children Todd Jo, Linda, Stuart Jr., and daughter-in-law, Beth, were residents at the Flamingo during their recent two-week Las Vegas visit.

On a business and vacation trip, Mr. Frankford attended the National Society of Public Accountants convention (he is past president). Mrs. Frankford departed for a four-day visit with former Birmingham residents Mr. and Mrs. James G. Riddell and daughter Sandi at their Beverly Hills, Calif., home.

Mrs. F. reports that Sandi Riddell, who was a popular student at Derby School, is now enrolled as a freshman at Southern California University.

MRS. JACK J. Rinehart entertained at a luncheon at Oakland Hills Country Club last Thursday. The party was to honor and introduce Mrs. David Muhltner, formerly Terry MacMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacMillan of Bronville, N. Y., to Birmingham friends of Mrs. Robert W. Muhltner, David's mother.

Those present were Mrs. Jack J. Mayes, Mrs. Louis M. Rich, Mrs. M. S. McLaughlin, Mrs. William Padillon, Mrs. Richard P. Benicke, Mrs. Wilbur Whitman, Mrs. George Quinn and Mrs. Robert Muhltner.

David and Terry were married June 29. They are presently living in Ann Arbor where David attends Law School at the University.
