

Birmingham and North Suburban Alumnae of Alpha Omicron Pi gave a Christmas tea for active collegiate members of the sorority and their mothers recently. It was held at the home of Mrs. Leo Danaky, 28125 Lathrup, Lathrup Village.

Miss Longyear Is Bride Of Donald M. Heggen

Wearing a Bianchi gown of dulcetto satin, Sylvia Jean Longyear became the bride of Donald Mery Heggen at a double-ring ceremony at Kirk-in-the-Hills Church Friday, Dec. 27.

MRS. DONALD MERY HEGGEN

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was accented with velvet motifs and pearl beading which graced the bodice. A bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion was held by a circlet of matching dulcetto satin. She carried a cascade of white orchids and staphenotis. Karen Oathoff, of Burlington, Iowa, was the honor attendant, and bridesmaids included the bride's sister, Charlotte, and Phillips Stark, of Midland. The bride's cousin, Julie Longyear, was the flower girl.

all of Bloomfield Hills. The bride's brother, Howard Longyear, was the ring-bearer. Following a reception at the Forest Lake Country Club, the newlyweds left for a skiing trip to Shanty Creek Lodge in Bellaire. For her traveling costume, the bride wore an aqua wool knit suit accented with gold jewelry and accessories.

Attendants wore floor-length gowns of emerald green and royal blue brocade accented with bands of matching velvet ribbon which created an empire effect. A petite crown of brocade with loops of velvet ribbon at the back was chosen for the headpieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longyear of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ryckman of Florida.

Linda Pederson Is Bride Of Frederick A. Shaw

Wearing an ivory peau de soie gown, Linda Gale Pederson became the bride of Frederick Alfred Shaw at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer Saturday, the Rev. Theodore Wugzagar officiating.

MRS. FREDERICK A. SHAW

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Pederson, 18831 Bungalow, Lathrup Village. Her gown was designed with a sweetheart neckline, and accented with a chapel train. She wore a family heirloom set of pearls owned by her grandmother.

she purchased in Norway this past summer. The couple will make their home in one of the area suburbs.

THE GROOM IS the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson Shaw of Cincinnati, Ohio. Honor attendant for the occasion was Mrs. Edward Coe, of Detroit, and bridesmaids included Leslie Meyer of Southfield and Carole Getzfield, of Detroit. They wore ruby red velvet gowns, accenting the ensemble with white fur muffs and gilette red roses.

WNFGA To Meet

The Pembroke Manor Branch of the WNFGA will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Faubel, 2286 Pembroke, Birmingham, at 8 p.m. next Thursday. Mrs. W. McClinton will be guest speaker and her topic is entitled "Judge the Bud".

Harold Coon, of Lathrup Village served as best man, while David Wheeler and Gary Label, of Detroit, were ushers. Following a dinner reception for 200 at Devon Gables, the newlyweds left for a 10-day Bermuda honeymoon. The bride's traveling costume was a morning glory blue and white suit, topped by a white wool and mohair coat that Make a list of those "don't needs" today. Dial MI 4-1100 and a Classi Lassi will help you.

Parties Honor Bride-Elect Before Rites

By MARTI CAHN

Mary Susan Schlachter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Schlachter of Cranbrook Road, will become the bride of Warren Sumner III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sumner of Bloomfield Hills, tomorrow in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

Parties to honor Susan began with a Sunday afternoon tea given by Mrs. Sumner to introduce her future daughter-in-law to 100 friends and relatives.

Mrs. Victor Matthews gave a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at Orchard Lake Country Club. Mrs. Frank Renell of North Cranbrook Road entertained at a luncheon and a bathroom and kitchen shower at her home. Mrs. McGinnis gave a luncheon and linen shower at her home on Crest Lake, Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Schlachter and Mr. Sumner were honor guests last Monday evening at a buffet dinner party given by Mrs. Hillis Trumbull at her Bloomfield Hills home.

Mrs. William Riley (formerly Barbara Corbin of Birmingham), bridemaid from Texas, gave the spinster dinner at the Birmingham home of her mother, Mrs. Burke Coney.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at the Orchard Lake Country Club.

MR. AND MRS. PAT Cornish will be alone following the departure tomorrow of their last houseguest, Daughter Fretti and son-in-law, L. William B. Roberts II, with baby son, George Franklin Roberts III, are returning to their home in Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

Other houseguests of the Cornishs were: Son, John, from Houston, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Corneil's mother, Mrs. Frank E. Cornish of Windsor, Ont. Frequent visitors at the family reunion were another son, Jeff Cornish, with his wife and their children, Steve and Tami, of Pontiac, and Mr. Cornish' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilliland of Windsor.

Guests at a recent dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Staphichinas were Mr. and Mrs. George Allan with their children Susan, who is presently at home from Connecticut College, and son Bill. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Conrad and their daughter, Pam, who attends Northwestern University, and Mrs. Conrad's sister, Mrs. Stanley Hobson of Dayton, O.

Graduate members of the class of June '63, Kingswood School, were invited to luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burgess on Burning Bush Road. Wendy Burgess, daughter at home from Wellesley, helped to entertain the 31 college freshmen present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell Spierling entertained Sunday at the annual Spierling family dinner party—22 were present.

CELEBRATING New Year's Eve as guests of the James A. Coon were Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Benicke, Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. S. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Mayes and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Labej of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. The same evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Pokorny entertained Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Paddison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr. and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seyfried

BEVERLY HILLS Pick Beverly-Artesian House Decoration Winners

BY ELLI BLAUMAN MI 7-1465

Santa has come and gone and a brand new year is ahead, but there is still some holiday news to be told.

The winners of the house decoration contest in the Beverly-Artesian area were difficult to select, but the judges finally arrived at seven first place choices. They were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Goode and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rodman, both of W. Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Janke of E. Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bachala of Madeline St.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lausen of Elizabeth St.; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rempal of Marguerite St.; and Mr. and Mrs. William Shovel of Georgina St.; all of whom received a bottle of "spirits" for their efforts.

Out of nearly 60 letters written to Santa in the area, the two selected as tops were sent by Jill and David, age 7, and Bobby, 8, before returning to teach her sixth grade class in Elmira.

MR. AND MRS. JACK S. Putnam of Madison Road held open house for friends on Sunday, Dec. 28, and on the following Friday, Mrs. Putnam entertained again.

This time it was her Alpha Phi alumnae group which hosted its annual "brunch for the Alpha Phi collegiates who were home for the holidays.

Nancy Whitcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Whit-

THE BEVERLY-Greenfield Improvement Association also gave awards for distinctive outdoor decorations. Each block colonized chose a winner and those receiving cash awards were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kozlowski of Buckingham Road, Mr. and Mrs. John Rye of Lauderdale, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Conrad of Beverly Road and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Custance of Arlington.

Just back from a two week vacation is Mrs. T. Dorrough of Beauford Drive. She visited son, Don, and his wife, Mrs. Richard Kozlowski of Buckingham Road, Mr. and Mrs. John Rye of Lauderdale, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Conrad of Beverly Road and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Custance of Arlington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Schwartz, 7340 Greenwood Drive, Birmingham, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Rundell, of Webster Groves, Mo.

THE NEW MRS. Rundell wore a floor-length gown of ivory peau de soie embellished with Alencon lace. An empire style train accented the back, and a matching pillow hat held the illusion veiling. She carried a prayer book, trimmed with holly and roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ralph E. MacDonald and Jacqueline Marie Johnson, who wore moss green chiffon gowns and carried matching velvet muffs trimmed with holly.

Ushers included the bride's brother from California, John R. Schwartz; Max Schauble of Georgia; Jim Simon of Chicago; and Bill Eeroway.

Following a wedding trip to the Laurentian Mountains, the couple will live in Birmingham.

with a cocktail party before dining and dancing at the Oakland Hills Country Club.

A new day—a new year was celebrated on Wednesday at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed H. Wilcox (usually in their Florida residence during the holiday season). Toasting 1964 and the far distant golf season were Birmingham and Bloomfield golfing friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Falconer, Mr. and Mrs. L. Dale Kinney (at home for the holidays from their Palm Beach residence), Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Beltz, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Shantz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Staphichinas, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Reed, Helen Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Boyd Stockmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Benicke, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ralph Angle, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cornish, Mrs. Willard E. Welsh and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. West.

them to Cranbrook, to a "Pine" party, and on a tour of Detroit. They were able also to see their five-month-old grandson Jeffrey baptized at Christ Church, Cranbrook on Christmas Eve.

Not only did she supervise a group of young girls on "free" separate daily excursions, among which were all day trips to Greenfield Village, Cobb Hall, and Kensington Park, but Nancy also had another group of little girls under her wing at the "Pine" camp for three days. This was her first such experience, but a first-hand witness reported that she did a wonderful job.

MRS. DONALD VAN Every of Smallwood Court will receive calls and coffee to the board members of the Valley Woods Garden Club at her home on Monday.

This is the traditional time for making new resolutions, so would all you nice people mind adding one more to your list? Please don't forget to call in your new items so that I can keep my resolutions which is to respect every corner of Beverly Hills.

DINNERWARE

—from England

Advertisement for Royal Staffordshire dinnerware. Includes prices for TONGQUIN—blue, brown or pink, 50 Pc. Set—Service for 8 $24.95; Royal Staffordshire Wheat Special, 50 Pc. Set $16.75; JOHNSON BROS. Blue Historic America, 50 Pc. Set $19.95; Pink Millstream, 50 Pc. Set $19.95.

Advertisement for Pontiac Pottery. Michigan's Largest Dinnerware Specialty Store. NORTH END OF BLOOMFIELD MIRACLE MILLS SHOPPING CENTER ON TELEGRAPH ROAD. Telephone FE 2-8642. Open Daily and Sunday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Advertisement for Rytex stationery. January only. Sale. Double the usual quantity. Only $3.89 (regularly 6.00).

Advertisement for La Belles. Bridal Registry. Books • Gifts • Cards. Social Stationery. 137 West Maple Birmingham.

Advertisement for Harold B. Brown Carpets and Rugs. End of Year Sale BROADLOOM CARPET. Lists various carpet types and prices per square yard.

Advertisement for Mary Bragg. She's... chairman of something or other each year—she's the person you call when you need something, dear... she's cultured and smart with a wit so tres charming—her clothes... oh, my pet—completely disarming love. Mary Bragg. Fine clothes for gentlemen. 1087 W. LONG LAKE ROAD. Across from Devon Gables. MI 7-9326. Bloomfield Hills.

Advertisement for Birmingham Cleaners. Suited to the needs of the Executive. BIRMINGHAM CLEANERS. For busy executives, good appearance is essential and time is precious. That's why so many men at the top... on their way up... take their suits to Birmingham Cleaners. Yes... just drop off the suit you want cleaned at either of our conveniently located stores on your way to work... and when you return, it will be ready for that big date or business appointment you have in the evening!