GROUP ARRANGES THREE EVENTS
Hylozoist Arts Festival Slated at Northland Dome

The program includes the selec-ions, two of which are west-Coney Island. Work will be-vibrations at the Northland Dome. The event is scheduled to be held on Jan. 11. The program features a variety of musical and art performances, including dance, music, and poetry. The goal is to celebrate the integration of art and culture in our community. The event is open to the public and is free of charge.

Photos Show Artists of Paris

The exhibit, titled "The Artist in Paris," is held at the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C. It features over 100 works of art by renowned artists, including paintings, sculptures, and photographs. The exhibit is open to the public and is free of charge. The exhibit runs from Jan. 1 to Jan. 31.

Birmingham Town Hall To Hear Drama Critic

Joe Callaway, drama critic, actor, and director of stage, will present "Broadway Play Notes" on Jan. 11 and 12 at 8 p.m. in the Birmingham Town Hall. The program will feature a study of successful Broadway plays. The event is open to the public and is free of charge.

Matisse Window Painting of Month

"The Window" by Henri Matisse is the Painting of the Month for the Birmingham Town Hall. The piece is part of the Matisse Window series, which features colorful and vibrant windows that are a popular attraction in the city.

Antique Bug Bites Beverly Hills Couple

By JILL BLAUMAN

The couple, who are both antique dealers, have a large collection of rare and unique items. They recently purchased a rare antique clock from a local estate sale and are excited to add it to their collection.

Registration To Open for New Classes

The registration for the winter semester is now open. Classes are available in a variety of subjects, including art, music, and dance. The registration deadline is Jan. 10.

BAA Is Offering Two Scholarships

Applications for two scholarships are being accepted. The Hope Scholarship will be awarded to an incoming freshman, and the Excellence Scholarship will be awarded to an incoming transfer student. The deadline for applications is Jan. 15.