1964 Seen As Banner Year in Sports

By DICK ZIMMEN

What has been sought for local schools in athletics is the year's banner year in sports. One reason for this is because several schools have had outstanding seasons.

One good example of this is shown at Birmingham High School, which won the state championship in football. The team had a record of 11-0-0 and defeated Southfield High School in the state championship game.

Another school that had an outstanding season is Livonia High School, which won the state championship in basketball. The team had a record of 15-0-0 and defeated Detroit Cass Tech in the state championship game.

One of the biggest challenges in winter sports is to keep up with the latest fashion. But for one young woman, skating has become a way of life.

She learned to skate at the age of 5 and has been hooked ever since. Her love for the sport has grown with each passing year, and she now competes at the national level.

The BARNS, meanwhile, have a 2-0-0 record and are leading the Western New York League. They are preparing for the state tournament, which is scheduled for the end of the month.

The team has a record of 11-0-0 and defeated Southfield High School in the state championship game.
