

St. Colmans Slates Family Holy Hour

A Family Holy Hour that will start off a religious New Year, is being sponsored by the South Oakland Deansy, Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women this Sunday, Jan. 12, at St. Colmans Church at 3 p.m.
At this ceremony the family will be consecrated to the Sacred Heart, and a renewal of the marriage vows will be followed by a sermon and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

LWV Studies Local Scene This Month

Following three months of concentration on national issues, members of the League of Women Voters of Birmingham turn their attention to the local scene this month.
The program for January unit meetings will be presented by the committees studying Birmingham Township government and the Bloomfield Hills school system. This marks the first presentation on the new local government study on which committee members worked throughout the summer months.
Mrs. Robert Knight, committee chairman, said that the interim report will be followed by a summary of the study at the League of Women Voters general meeting in February.
Mrs. Richard Rick, of North

B'nai B'rith Need Glasses for Abroad

The "good deed a month" project for suburban chapter of B'nai B'rith will be the collection of eyeglass frames and lenses to be sent overseas.
The group said that foreign physicians have issued a plea for glasses, and will match corresponding lenses for proper prescription and fit.
