

Beverly Hills Council Sets Meeting Record

BEVERLY HILLS—It was a fast track Monday at the village hall where business on the agenda for the regular council meeting was dispatched in a record-breaking 45 minutes.

The short agenda included tentative approval for the plat of Rensdale Subdivision at Evergreen north of 13 Mile Road, and approval of a request by Ralph E. Raymond, 31851 Beverly Circle, that his portion of the Twelve Town Drain assessment be waived.

COUNCILMAN HUGH G. Alterton, Jr., was named legislative contact man for the Michigan Municipal League, and a regional meeting of the League, scheduled at 2 p.m. at Sylvan Glen in Troy Thursday, Feb. 20, was announced.

Schwartz-Rundell Wedding Omission

An omission was made in the wedding announcement of Hannelore Ruth Schwartz to C. Reid Rundell of Birmingham which appeared in the Dec. 27 issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Care were the couple's best man and matron-of-honor at the Dec. 20 ceremony at Kirk-in-the-Hills Church.

Mrs. Rundell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Schwartz, 7340 Greenwich Drive, Birmingham.

Their Holiday Boasts 'Full House'

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-6066

It was indeed a "full house" when the Erving Marathe family of Middlebury Lane gathered for Christmas celebrating. About 80 people, from great grandparents down to great grandchildren, assembled to join in the festivities. As usual, Santa Claus appeared

Program

• How he relates to his parents, his attitude toward the home and how well he obeys parental rules.

• Whether he likes to participate in normal childhood activities.

ONCE youngsters reach adolescence, they are more difficult to deal with, Lusk said.

"Then, somehow we have to change the existing behavior pattern in adolescents with delinquent tendencies so they make a more favorable adjustment to the demands of society.

"There is no one set of rules in raising children. We have to deal with each family and each child independently.

Lusk explained that the Youth Assistance Program is voluntary and that all interviews are in strict confidence.

THE CASE study subcommittee, composed of a priest, a pediatrician, a school psychiatrist, a school visiting teacher, a social worker and the director of Oakland County Family Services, is an important part of the total program.

The primary purpose of the subcommittee is to diagnose the problem and help institute a treatment plan or direction for it.

Lusk acts on recommendations he receives from the group each month. No names are revealed to the subcommittee.

"One of the program's primary purposes is to keep juvenile cases out of court," Lusk added. "We want to help youngsters avoid court records that might later jeopardize their personal interests."

THE BIRMINGHAM program has been in existence for a year and its annual report will be presented to the city commission at the end of January.

There is good reason to believe that the program will be continued. Lusk, who first came here in August, feels that the Birmingham program has had a significant year. "I believe this coordinated approach is a progressive type of movement. The program here, and throughout Oakland County, is a front-runner in the State of Michigan."

(Known to the 'oldsters as Ray Edwards) but to the youngsters as that jolly fellow) ho ho ho! An additional Christmas gift was when the Marathe's son, Hugh Edward, finished his basic training in Uncle Sam's Army in Kentucky in time to arrive home for the big party.

He is to be assigned to duty at Ft. Eustis, Va., and returned to duty on Friday, Jan. 8.

Meanwhile Mrs. Marathe has been extremely busy because she served as hostess chairman when the muscular dystrophy supporters held their black tie party at the new Detroit Bryn Mawr Club on Friday, Dec. 27. The party was a sell-out far in advance of the date.

THE MAPLEBROOK Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association and the Cranbrook-Maple Association co-sponsored a contest in the Cranbrook-Maple area entitled "Doorway to Christmas." The contest was broken down into three categories, traditional, original and juvenile.

Judging was done the night of Dec. 26 by professional judges from the Westchester Garden Club which is also a branch of the WNF&G. The judges were Mrs. Earle Hefl and Mrs. M. B. Ricketts.

Judged best in the traditional category was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shrock, 480 S. Cranbrook Road. The top spot in the original grouping was given to the Rogers home at 2536 Whiteleigh, while the juvenile winner was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Passavant, 380 S. Glenary Road.

Honorable mentions were awarded to the James McInnes at 260 S. Williamsbury; the George Webbs at 407 S. Cranbrook Cross; and the Blair Chamberlins at 310 S. Gulgengary Road.

John/Philip Tompkins, Petty Officer Third Class aboard the U.S.S. Boston few home Dec. 27 for a week-and-a-half leave to spend with his parents, the Steve Tompkins, 4645 Pickering Road.

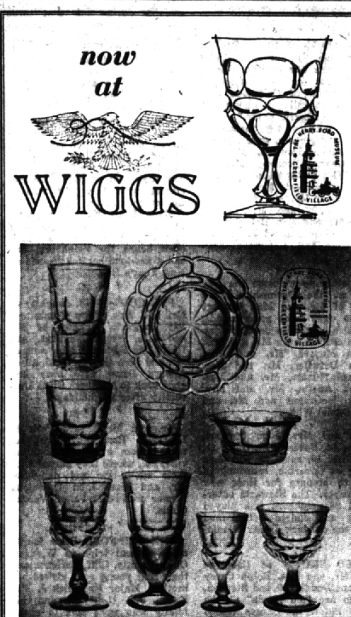

John has a twin, Peter, who is stationed with the Marine Corps in New Orleans. The young men to date have been fortunate in having their "leaves" coincide but fate stepped in this time and hospitalized Peter with typhoid infection. Better luck next time, fellows!

THE FRANK JEWELLS of Hillboro will be most anxious to receive tapes and perhaps pictures from their son, Dr. Patrick Jewell, who is serving with the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in LaPaz, Bolivia.

It was the first Christmas Dr. Jewell, his wife, Mary, and their three children, had spent in Bolivia and naturally the senior Jewells were most interested in what they did in the way of celebrating.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD

Rames of Pickering hosted a New Year's Eve party for friends and neighbors. Fun and a buffet supper were on the agenda for the evening.

SOFTENERS:—There are dozens of different makes of water softening equipment for home use and dozens of kinds of different models which require different kinds of salt, different amounts, different intervals between re-generations and so forth.

Veteran

"I was surprised at the support in the rural areas, especially in Livingston County. But his appeal is great to those who want lower taxes and fewer give-away programs by the government."

Cartwright, who began to consider Goldwater seriously as a presidential candidate in September, felt that the Arizona senator needs to make himself clearer on political issues and his stand on foreign affairs.

ALTHOUGH MANY FEEL that Goldwater would be strong in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, Cartwright has not found this to be completely true.

"The people here haven't made up their minds. They feel that he hasn't declared himself on many important issues, and they are still giving other candidates a good looking-over before they declare themselves."

Cartwright, who admits taking a level-headed and practical approach to politics, is also spreading his energies throughout the area.

BENEFITTING from his time and talent is an area PTA, the United Foundation, the homeowners' association, and the vice chairmanship of the West Bloomfield Township Planning Commission.

Cartwright served as a commissioned officer in the 31st Strategic Fighter Wing, Strategic Air Command of the U.S. Air Force, serving in Georgia and the Far East during the Korean War. He received his L. L. B. degree from the Detroit College of Law in 1956.

Bandit Nets $200 In Twp. Holdup

An armed bandit netted more than $200 when he held up a Bloomfield Township gas station early Tuesday morning.

Richard Arenica, attendant on duty at 6:15 a.m. at Lee Algaine Telegraph, Maple Avenue, 6515 Telegraph, said the gunman pulled a pistol and ordered him into a back room.

The bandit scooped the money out of a cash register and fled, Arenica told police.
