Localities Among Overflow Crowd

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Glenn (left) and Mr. and Mrs. David Demarest, of Bloomfield Village, were among the throngs attending the opening night party at Detroit's new Playboy Club. Proceeds from the huge, black tie event were turned over to the local chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Bonnie Grovogel Bride Of LeRoy M. Peterson

MRS. LEROY MICHAEL PETERSON

St. Hugo of the Hills Church in Bloomfield Hills was the setting for the marriage of Bonnie Jean Grovogel to LeRoy Michael Peterson on Saturday, Dec. 28. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Grovogel, 855 North Pemberton, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Herbert Peterson, of DePere, Wis., and the late Mr. Peterson.

For her wedding the new Mrs. Peterson chose a gown of white satin trimmed with seed pearls on the bodice and skirt. The 3-tier veil was secured by a headpiece of seed pearls and lace, and she carried a spray bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

THE BRIDE'S twin sister, Barbara, served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Cheryl Hindle and Dorothy Wright, of Bloomfield Hills, and Susan Vander Heuvel of Wisc. Their emerald green satin gowns were enhanced by a bodice of velvet, and matching velvet headpieces. They carried sweetheart roses and white carnations to complete their ensemble.

Charles Ackerman, of Appleton, Wisc., served as best man, and ushers included Daniel Regan and Joseph Klier, of East Lansing, and Richard Gehring of Howell.

MRS. GROVOGEL, mother of the bride, wore an avocado green fashion trimmed with seed pearls and matching accessories. For her son's marriage, Mrs. Peterson was crowned in a royal blue dress trimmed with seed pearls.

Following a luncheon reception at the Edgewood Country Club, the couple left for a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains. For her traveling costume, the bride wore a three-piece black velvet suit accented with a gold blouse and matching accessories.

The couple will make their home in Fort Benning, Ga.

Their First Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Dahl, 835 Westchester Way, Birmingham, announce the birth of their first son, Daniel Steven, on Dec. 28, 1963. The Dahls (Mrs. Dahl is the former Mary Rue of Bismarck, N. D.), also have a three-year-old girl, Nancy Marie.

College Entrance Needs Is Topic At Pierce PTA

The next meeting of the Pierce School P.T.A. on Jan. 15 at 8 p.m. will feature a panel discussion on "preparing children for college."

Because of the considerable interest and concern among parents and teachers about the changing requirements for college entrance in recent years, what our schools at all grade levels are doing, how the curriculum meets new changes, and where and how parents and teachers can help will be topics of discussion by a panel of educators from the Birmingham area.

Speakers include Roy Vannette, principal, Barnum Junior High School; Ross Wagner, principal, Seaholm High School; William Corliss, director of elementary education for the Birmingham Public Schools, and Glen Brown, associate director of missions at Oakland University. Daniel Webb, principal of Pierce school, will act as moderator.
