When the New Year dawned, Stanley and Nancy Madison, hosting in Europe since Sept., were in Naples with eight other American students waiting for a ship to bring them home. They had planned to be home for Christmas, but sailing was delayed.

Nancy, daughter of Mrs. Vincent S. Madison, 1861 Humphry, writes that her clothes are in tatters and she can't wait to get home where she can enjoy the luxury of a good hot bath. According to their last letter, Stanley and Nancy hoped to be on a ship bound for the United States by Jan. 2.

Another young man waits as the New Year begins. Carl Evangelista, injured in a car accident last Aug. 15, is waiting for a room in a hospital to become available so he can be admitted for further treatment. Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Evangelista, 1506 Yorkshire, still has his leg in a cast.

BARBARA OYEN invited 14 of her friends to her home, 1690 Mansfield, Friday night. The occasion was a personal shower for Pauline Sarkisian who has announced her engagement to William Schoeneman. Assisting Barbara were Wanda Harter, Jeanne Gillan and Theresa Fisher. Miss Sarkisian, 1427 Emmons, Birmingham, and Mr. Schoeneman, Livonia, will be married June 13.

Hostesses for the shower all returned to college this week. Barbara is a sophomore at Michigan State. Theresa also attends Michigan State. Wanda is a student at Central Michigan and Jeanne attends Alma College.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Calderwood entertained 50 guests at a party at their home, 960 Oxford, Saturday night, Dec. 28. Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Yaskel, 565 Wilmont, arrived home from visiting Mr. Yaskel's mother and brother in Connecticut just in time for the party. Also among the guests were Mrs. Calderwood's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Scott of Utica and Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, Grosse Pointe.

TORRY PTA WILL present part two of a two-part program on mental health Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Torry gym. Mr. Bernard Maslanic, coordinator of special services for Birmingham Board of Education, will discuss problems concerning children in grades four, five and six. A question and answer period will follow.

In his first lecture of the series, Dec. 3, Mr. Maslanic pointed out that maladjustment results from lack of one of the basic needs which are physical as well as psychological. In order to satisfy the basic psychological needs, according to Mr. Maslanic, a child must be made to feel secure, comfortable, worthwhile, and, above all, he should be given love and affection.

Hunt Fair Alices

Fifteen hundred area women are about to attend a tea party. This opening gun of the year, socially speaking, revolves around local dynamo planning the Hunt Fair in conjunction with the Detroit Horse Show (largest of its type in the country) June 22 through 23 at Bloomfield Open Hunt.

Purpose of the Fair is to raise funds for Oakland University's scholarship fund, this year's co-chairmen being Mrs. Harold Howlett of Birmingham and Mrs. Ralph Norvell of Pontiac.

MRS. SCHMIDT

Checking past operation, it was determined by the ladies that one of the most successful and profitable booths during former fairs was "Trinkets and Treasures."

Hence, the plan for a series of teas during January and February with admission to be the donation of an article—no hopefully—articles to stock yawning shelves. Formerly, committee members gathered antiques, jewelry, household articles and bric-a-brac from far and wide, the resulting display a treasure hunter's dream.

Hoping for a repeat collection are chairman of the booth Mrs. S. D. Steiner of Bloomfield Hills and her assistants Mrs. Harry Winston, Jr., and Mrs. S. Tenny McGraw.

The teas are scheduled for the last of this month and early February, hostesses to include Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mrs. William Breech, Mrs. Robert A. Dearth of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Alton J. Deuster, Lake Angelus; Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Philip Rowston, Pontiac; Mrs. William Gard, Mrs. Charles Parcels, Jr., Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Paul Horton, Metamora; Mr. Alfred G. Wilson, Rochester; Mrs. Edmund Winderler, Waterford-Clarkston; Mrs. Arthur Moore, Royal Oak, and Mrs. Robert Tuholsek, Huntington Woods.

Birmingham-Bloomfield committee members for "Trinkets" are Mrs. Howard Barker, Mrs. Arthur Buteraugh, Mrs. E. M. Estes, Mrs. Alfred C. Girard, Mrs. Clement Jensen, Mrs. Colin H. John, Mrs. Russell Nowels, Mrs. John W. Sanders.

Others include Mrs. Edward A. Schirmer, Mrs. Parbury P. Schmidt, Mrs. William Shunck, Mrs. George T. Trumbull, Mrs. Richard B. Wallace and Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, Jr.

Orange Blossoms 'n' Tulle

Wedding bells continue to echo and re-echo across suburbia, with Deedie Degener, as attractive as his artistic (creator of doll and play houses de luxe, you'll recall), the latest to add her name to our current list of summer brides.

Deanne Alicia, as she is more formally known, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Frederick Degener of Bloomfield Hills and will marry Robert Bruce Thom Aug. 16 in Christ Church Cranbrook. Bob's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thom of Foxcroft.

Both Deedie and Bob are graduates of Bloomfield Hills High School, Deedie going on to Michigan State and the Society of Arts and Crafts in Detroit, while Bob attended Hillsdale, where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Epsilon, and Peris State College.

Mrs. Harry Smith Dunn of Rosedale Park, well known in Birmingham because of her affiliation with Kirk-in-the-Hills and because most of her family lives here, was married Monday in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to William John Black of Isle of Venice, Fla., formerly of Detroit and Birmingham.

The couple repeated their vows in Second Presbyterian Church, with only members of the family and a few close friends attending. Mrs. James T. Howell (Sarah Lee Dunn) of Bloomfield Village was her mother's only attendant, and Clinton Scharrif of Detroit was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Black will make their permanent home in Florida, but expect to make frequent visits back to Birmingham and Detroit—especially during Opera Week. Mrs. B. has been a longtime committee worker for the Met, second love of her life!

Atler-Pizer Vows Read

Sandra Dawn Pizer became the bride of Arnold Jay Atler Saturday, Dec. 28, in Temple Israel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Pizer of Franklin. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore E. Atler of Oak Park.

Miss Pizer chose a gown of silk brocade with a bateau neckline and flared skirt, which draped into a chapel train. A brocade headpiece secured her fingertip French illusion veil. She carried a train of pink carnations and shell ivory.

ANN PIZER, the bride's sister, assisted as maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Cecile Pizer, the bride's cousin. Both wore short apple green velvet dresses and carried pink carnations and shell ivory.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Robert Atler, to serve as usher. The couple will live in Oak Park.
