WILSON-SCOLARO

Toni Louise Scolaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Scolaro of Apple Lane, Bloomfield Hills, spoke her marriage vows Saturday morning to Rush Wilson III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Rush Wilson of Scarsdale, N. Y. The ceremony took place in St. Hugo of the Hills Church, with a reception following at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

The bride wore a peau d'ange gown highlighted by pearl and crystal embroidery. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline and chapel train. A small crown of miniature pearls secured her fingertip-length veil, and she carried white roses and holly on her prayer book.

Jean Ellen Scolaro was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Josie Paulus, Martha Steiner and Barbara Stacey, all of Birmingham, and Nancy Wood of Rochester. They wore emerald green velveteen and carried deep red roses and holly. Their headpieces were tiny pill-boxes of artificial holly and green veiling.

Harry McWilliams of Cincinnati was best man, and ushers were Michael and James Wilson of Scarsdale, brothers of the bridegroom; another brother, Ray Wilson of Cadillac, and Paul Krenz of New Haven, Conn.

Immediately following the reception, the couple left for Florida. They will make their home in Lakeland.

STEDING-SINTZ

Martha Jean Steding, daughter of Mrs. Maurice F. Smith, Jr., of Birmingham and H. Richard Steding of Bloomfield Hills, is engaged to Robert Clark Sintz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark Sintz of Birmingham. The news was revealed at a holiday tea in the home of the bride-elect's mother.

Martha Jean attended Denison University and the University of Michigan and her fiancé attended Wittenberg and Wayne State. His fraternity is Phi Kappa Psi.

The couple has set Sept. 19 as the date of their marriage.

BIDDLECOMBE-CROWLEY

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Biddlecombe of Maplewood, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Anne, to Lawrence Higbie Crowley, son of the Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Archie Crowley of Birmingham. Bishop Crowley is the suffragan bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

Miss Biddlecombe is an alumna of Centenary College for Women and her fiancé is an amicus of Cranbrook. He will be graduated next month from Olivet College.

Date for the wedding will be announced later.

FREDERICKS-THORNBURY

At a family supper party Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks of Lakeside Road, Bloomfield Hills, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lois, to Michael A. Thornbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stanley Thornbury of Lakeside Drive, Birmingham.

Lois is a graduate of the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills and the Duchesne Residence School in New York city. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Anselm's College, Manchester, N. H., and did graduate work at the University of Michigan.

The couple is planning a spring wedding.

KNIGHT-NOBEL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce Knight of Wing Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Roe, to Gary Lee Nobel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carl Nobel of Grosse Pointe. The news was revealed at a family party in the Knight home during the holidays.

Miss Knight is a senior at the University of Michigan and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary, and Kappa Alpha Theta. Her fiancé is a junior in the Medical College at U. of M. and is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta and Nu Sigma Nu. The wedding will take place June 6 in Christ Church Cranbrook.

GRIFFIN-CRUMPACKER

Mary Eleanor (Molly) Crumpacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen W. Crumpacker of Hammond, Ind., was married Dec. 28 to James Ellis Griffin, son of Mrs. Charles Wayne of Bloomfield Hills and the late Winston Kern Griffin.

The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian Church in Hammond, after which a reception and dinner was given in the home of the bride's parents.

Amy Crumpacker was her sister's maid of honor and two additional sisters, Mrs. F. Carl Reinhardt of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Robert M. Brown of Watertown, Mass., were bridesmaids. Other attendants were Mrs. Tinkham of Hammond and Patricia Carlson of Hinsdale, Ill.

Frederick Buesser, Jr., of Bloomfield Village was best man, and ushers included Robert Edzell, John Utley, John Dumont, Charles Wayne, Jr., and Robert Brookman, all students at the University of Michigan.

Immediately following the reception, the newlyweds left for Grand Cayman Island, Caribbean. They will make their home in Ann Arbor upon their return.

The bridegroom was graduated in 1968 from the Liberal Arts School at U. of M. and is now attending Law School there. His fraternity is Sigma Chi. The bride is a senior at the University, where she is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority.

Wellesley Club Hosts Controller

The Birmingham Wellesley Club will meet Jan. 15 for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Robert Johnson, 139 Pilgrim Road, Birmingham. Mrs. Robert H. Black will serve as cohostess.

The speaker will be Alfred M. Pelham, controller of the city of Detroit. Pelham, a graduate of the University of Michigan and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, has served Wayne County in many capacities. He has been the budget director, senior accountant, senior statistician, and director of the Department of Systems and Reports. He retired from service with Wayne County in 1957. He is presently serving as controller of the city of Detroit.

Newlyweds Cruise To Caribbean

Mrs. Floy Heinsohn, formerly active in Birmingham, became the bride of Allen M. Knowles of Winter Park, Fla., at the Knowles Memorial Chapel of Rollins College last Sunday at 2 p.m. Dr. Oswald Delgado officiated.

MRS. KNOWLES was the widow of Paul E. Heinsohn, who died in 1962. She was active in the Birmingham Musicals, the International Relations class, and is a member of the Birmingham First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Knowles is a graduate of the University of Maine and for 40 years was engineer of structures with the Erie Railroad, and for 18 years was superintendent of building. He is a member of Gamma Alpha chapter of Alpha Tau Omega and Beta Upsilon chapter, University of Maine.

The couple plan to return to Birmingham this spring.
