The last of the holiday entertaining, house guests and trips came to a close last week as the Christmas trim was packed away for another year.

Skating on the northern slopes during the holiday season were the A. W. Holcombe of W. Orchard Hill Drive and their children, Gerry and Andrew.

Joining them at Boyne Mountain, Boyne Highlands and Osage were the Garrett Mowms, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Lahti, the John Stutenbergs, Dr. and Mrs. George Smith, the Bruce Craig and the Fred Eric of Birmingham. Others were the James Thornburns and the Don McGinnis of Royal Oak.

In February the Holcombs will be joined by the Garrett Mowms, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Lahti and the James Thornburns at Vall, Colo., for a week of skiing.

THE ROBERT LOSSINGS of Saterlee Road entertained a group of 34 Hickory Heights neighbors and friends at a buffet catered party during the holidays.

The Lossings are now looking forward to their three-week Hawaiian trip on Feb. 1 with great anticipation. Their plans include flying to Hawaii and staying at the Hawaiian Village for a few days before journeying on to the island of Maui.

While they tour Maui and the surrounding islands the Lossings will be living at the Royal Lualaba Hotel until their return trip on March 1.

DEPARTING last Thursday from the John Costello home on Squirrel Road after spending the holidays with them and their children were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Greenwood of Charles City, Ia.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Benoay and children, Bill, Rosemary and Tom, of Saterlee Drive spent the holidays in the Florida sun. While in Miami Beach, the Golden Nugget Resort Motel was their home as they enjoyed swimming and sightseeing.

ANOTHER HICKORY Heights family home from a Florida sojourn are the Robert Deyoes and children, Tom and Pat of E. Valley Chase Road. They chose Sarasota as their playground for swimming, sunning and deep sea fishing during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon De Saint Nicholas of Top View Drive entertained a group of 50 neighbors and area friends at a "holiday open house" last Sunday evening.

The Earl Parcelli, Jr. of Northdale Drive were another couple inviting friends to a holiday open house during New Year's week.

Homes Return to Normal As Holiday Period Ends

GLORIA JESSUP

With the holidays at an end, the children back in school and a bit of thaw in the air, we can look forward to the normalcy of the next two months. In fact the January and February doldrums sound pretty good.

After having a house full for the holidays, the F. C. Gallaudet home on Shadow Lane is getting back to normal. All five Gallaudet children were home, or rather in and out, when they were off skiing at Osage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Sturges, III, came for a visit from their home in Old Lyme, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Edson F. Gallaudet, II, arrived from Des Plaines, Ill. and Lt. and Mrs. George Van Kula and young son George, III, journeyed out from the Bainbridge Naval Base in Maryland.

Andrew was at home for Christmas but spent the New Year's week end in Kalamazoo visiting a former roommate from Michigan State University, Thomas spent most of his vacation from Brother Rice on the slopes.

THREE was the magic number when the whole Campbell family gathered for the holidays at the senior Campbell home in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Campbell of Crabtree made the trip with their three children for a nine-day stay. They returned to Foxcroft in time for New Year's.

Also coming from their homes for the family reunions were Dr. Campbell's brother and his wife and their three children, his sister and brother-in-law and their three children.

THE ADULTS were outnumbered by quite a few when five area couples (all enthusiasts, one and all) took their families skiing after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin, Jr., of Franklin Road and their four children were among the group. Others included the Jim Coles and their two children, the Morey Purdy family with three children; the Jack Wrights, also with three children; and the Bill Millers with their seven children.

The large group of 10 adults and 19 children stayed in cabins at Graywood Circle and did their skiing at Hidden Valley at Gaylord.

THE BROOKSIDE branch of the WNFPA met Jan. 3 at the home of Mrs. B. E. Kimball on Lahser Road. Assisting Mrs. Kimball as cohostesses were Mrs. Sherwood J. Nye and Mrs. Clifford Dick.

Guest speaker for the afternoon meeting was Mrs. L. E.

Friends and neighbors of the youngest Johnnie of Balfour Road who met at the Johnson home on New Year's Eve really had a good time. The Johnsons dusted off their barbecue grill and the guests lined up provided with steaks to cook to their own desires.

After that it was "hot luck." Some 16 guests enjoyed the slightly different approach to the evening, ringing out the old year was incorporated with a "going away" party in honor of the Jack Lyons, who are moving to Dallas, Tex. soon.

A remembrance gift was presented to them by those present. The week of Christmas, Miss Agnes Hickey of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Johnson's sister, was a house guest at the Johnson home and had considerable fun with the Johnson children who are 15, 11, and 7 years old.

The only member of the family absent was a son, Paul, who is stationed at the Air Force Base in Colorado Springs.

MR. AND MRS. DWAYNE Chryst and their sons Greg and Douglas of 2965 Middlebury Lane opened their home on Dec. 22 to about 40 guests. Their son, David, his wife Elizabeth, and son, Rodney, from Toledo, O., were present to assist their parents in greeting their friends.

On Dec. 27, Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill, Mary and John Jr. of Traverse City arrived to spend the week end with the Chryst family. Mr. Merrill is personnel director of the Interlochen Arts Academy, Interlochen, Mich.

While visiting there, friends of the Vignests dropped in to say "hello" to the Bushs who welcome every opportunity to spend time with their children and grandchildren. The only thing that marred their visit was when passing through Benton Harbor on their return trip, the skies opened up and dumped a tremendous amount of snow which made driving quite hazardous.

MR. AND MRS. K. W. B. Bequette spent the Christmas holidays in Waterloo, Ill., where they visited with Mrs. Bequette's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. McConnelli. Their sons, Mike and Jim, accompanied them. On New Year's Day the Bequettes held an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. for friends and neighbors.

HOUSE GUESTS at the R. R. Murphy home on Bradford Drive were Mrs. Murphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krammer of Rochester, N. Y. They arrived in time to celebrate Mr. Krammer's birthday on Dec. 19 and then spent two weeks here.

Mrs. Murphy being an only child, the Krammers find it quite a lively household when they visit here because there are six grandchildren with whom they play and converse.

The time was spent going the usual things grandparents enjoy so much with the youngsters, a trip to see Santa Claus, the exhibition of Christmas Fairyland at Cobo Hall, and then of course out to lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Elms of Antioch, Ill., spent 10 days visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bothe and their three children of Bradford Drive.
