Village Skating Rink Sinks Into Oblivion

NITA HARD MA 6-3224

Where, oh where did the "skating rink" go? The residents of Franklin have been asking. Told several weeks ago that the Franklin Community Association had prepared a place for village youngsters to skate on their property...

dentists have been looking in vain. Association President George Howard explains that the truth of the matter has simply run around. NOT HAVING any base, except the good earth, gallons of water poured for the rink have been soaked up as fast, almost as it was applied...

So, though there'll be no "public" skating this year on the site, something good will come of this frustration. The Association is spending up their plan to build tennis courts, part of a projected plan for a complete recreation area...

"GAY BLADES" are sharpening up for Feb. 1 when the Franklin Community Association will hold its annual President's Ball at Plum Hollow country club.
