We are a young nation, but a nation rich in tradition. George Washington (1732-1799) was still a personal memory to many Americans, and Confederate General Robert E. Lee had not yet surrendered at Appomattox, when Birmingham was first designated a village a hundred years ago.

The Birmingham Eccentric is pleased to be a part of a movement by civic-minded residents to launch a Centennial Fund drive. Birmingham typifies a community that is proud of its American heritage. Appropriately, this special offer includes historical documents steeped in the American traditions that have made our way of life one of hope and inspiration for millions throughout the world.

Each document is crafted of fine, heavy antique parchment which looks and feels old. Every document is suitable for framing. They will become prized possessions in your home, and you will be taking an active part in furthering Centennial plans for 1964. Clip the convenient coupon, or visit the Eccentric building soon for your complete set.
