Hazel Park 59-58 Winner

Paul Jergel (14), Broder's high-scoring guard, was in action in the first half Lightweight tournament. Jergel, who scored 19 points, including a three-pointer, led Broder to a 33-31 victory over Hazel Park. Jergel was fouled twice in the first quarter and once in the second quarter, but was able to make all six free throws. In the third quarter, Jergel scored 11 points, including a three-pointer, to help Broder pull away from Hazel Park. In the fourth quarter, Jergel scored 5 points, including a three-pointer, to seal the victory for Broder. Jergel was fouled three times in the fourth quarter, but was able to make all six free throws to help Broder secure the win.

North Macomb Sportsmen's Club Receives Award

North Macomb Sportsmen's Club, located at 1000 E. Main St. in Harrison, received the \textit{Michigan Sportsman} Sportsmanship Award for its efforts in promoting sportsmanship and ethical hunting practices. The club has a strong commitment to conservation and has implemented several programs to educate members and the public about responsible hunting and fishing.

Entering Nationals

Hills Skate Star Wins Title

Troy Wood, the 15-year-old Detroit Skating Club star from Royal Oak, won the 59-58 Lightweight tournament. Wood, a five-time national champion, defeated the defending national champion, 13-year-old Justin Smith, in the final round. Wood's victory guarantees him a spot in the national championships. The national championships will be held in mid-February in Chicago.

Paul Jergel's four goals were enough to secure a win for the Lightweights over the 59-58 Weight Division, making them the first champions of the tournament.

Coast Guard Offers Free Boat Handling Classes

Sail of the S.C. raises $2000 for the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. The Coast Guard Auxiliary is a volunteer organization that provides assistance to the U.S. Coast Guard in times of need. The organization is made up of men and women who volunteer their time and skills to help the Coast Guard with various tasks, such as search and rescue missions, maritime safety, and national defense.

Falksons Dunk Foe; Seaholm Tankers Win

Clarkston Knocked Out of Lead

Clarkston lost its lead in the first quarter to Seaholm, which scored 10 points to Clarkston's 0. Clarkston's defense was not up to standard, allowing the Tankers to score easily. Clarkston's offense was also not up to par, scoring only 4 points in the first quarter. Clarkston's defense improved in the second quarter, holding the Tankers to only 6 points. However, Clarkston was unable to score enough points to overcome the Tankers' lead,最终 losing the game 16-26.

ENTERS NATIONALS

Hills Skate Star Wins Title

Troy Wood, the 15-year-old Detroit Skating Club star from Royal Oak, won the Lightweight tournament. Wood, a five-time national champion, defeated the defending national champion, 13-year-old Justin Smith, in the final round. Wood's victory guarantees him a spot in the national championships. The national championships will be held in mid-February in Chicago.

Coast Guard Offers Free Boat Handling Classes

Sail of the S.C. raises $2000 for the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. The Coast Guard Auxiliary is a volunteer organization that provides assistance to the U.S. Coast Guard in times of need. The organization is made up of men and women who volunteer their time and skills to help the Coast Guard with various tasks, such as search and rescue missions, maritime safety, and national defense.

Falksons Dunk Foe; Seaholm Tankers Win

Clarkston Knocked Out of Lead

Clarkston lost its lead in the first quarter to Seaholm, which scored 10 points to Clarkston's 0. Clarkston's defense was not up to standard, allowing the Tankers to score easily. Clarkston's offense was also not up to par, scoring only 4 points in the first quarter. Clarkston's defense improved in the second quarter, holding the Tankers to only 6 points. However, Clarkston was unable to score enough points to overcome the Tankers' lead,最终 losing the game 16-26.