

Indiana Solon Visits Daughter Here

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324
Congressman and Mrs. W. K. Denton of Washington, D.C., and Indiana, were guests on honor at an open house given by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Bamberger of Kingsmill Drive on Dec. 29.
The Dentons were here on a short holiday visit with their daughter's family.

at a New Year's Eve party were the Edward Grahams, Richard Bairds, Walter Pates, Glen Jennings, Claude Climes and Charles Richardsons.
AND FOR their New Year's Eve guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sweeney of E. Newland Drive held a "night in Las Vegas," with roulette wheels and dice and blackjack tables set up to whip away the waning hours of 1963.

Other couples who entertained during the holidays were the Walter Rydons of W. Dekker Drive, the Stan Ambers of Kingsmill Drive and the Harry D. Flemings of Woodwind Drive who all gave cocktail parties.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Casebolt of Pebbleshire Road and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Barber of Eastmoor Road gave buffet dinners.

On Jan. 5 open house for neighborhood friends was held by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gullod of Eastmoor Road and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bickley of Barnaby Court.
STILL ANOTHER open house was given by the A. K. Hillcoats who held theirs on New Year's Eve when 40 guests stopped in at their Ogden Drive home.
Guests of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Thompson of Middlebelt Road

Mr. and Mrs. John Owen of W. Newland Drive saw the New Year in at a party at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station.
THE JOHN CAULLEY and Nathan Koch families spent New Year's Eve together at the Koch home on Nantucket Road in Bloomfield Hills. The two couples and their eight children were neighbors four years ago in Leawood, Kan. The Koch family moved to Michigan last fall.

THE RALPH McINTOSHs who moved to Michigan from Pittsburgh in October celebrated their first Christmas in their new home on Westmoor Road. Their son and daughter, John and Cathy, came home to be with them for the holidays.
John is a student at Otterbein College, Westerville, O., and Cathy is an art instructor at Elk Grove (Ill.) Junior High.
Cathy's fiancé, Robert G. Hill, Jr., of Chicago, Ill., was also a guest of the McIntoshs.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Stirewalt were here from Springfield, Ill., to spend the holidays with their son's family, the John Stirewalts of Turner Road.

DEC. 27 was a snowy day but for Darcy Maunders it was summertime again as she watched herself and other campers enjoying camp life in a movie taken in Ortonville last summer.
Darcy and her mother, Mrs. James Maunders of Idlewild Road, were at the annual Christmas reunion of Camp Holiday held in Barth Hall of the Deception Cathedral Center in Detroit.
Campers and their mothers, counselors and the camp director had luncheon together followed by the movie and a songfest of camp songs.

THE EPISCOPAL Churchwomen of the Church of the Advent on Middlebelt Road invited two ECW representatives from each of the 10 churches making up the McCoskey Convocation of the Episcopal Church to their luncheon meeting yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald May of Old Orchard Drive returned last week from a visit to Chicago.
Other recent visitors to Chicago were the Frank Gagniers of Kingsmill Drive and the John Wares of Sutters Lane who spent three days there on a combined business and pleasure trip.

MRS. STAN RAPSPIS of Eastmoor Road celebrated her recent birthday at the Rooster-tail with her husband and friends.

Don Waters of Inkster Road celebrated his fifth birthday on Dec. 30 with the help of his brother, Jack, Jayne Koback, Jimmy Bull, Bart McFale and Todd Richter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Stronach left on Jan. 6 for their home in Santa Barbara, Calif., after a two-week visit with her parents, the Harry Gustas of Middleton Drive.

THE FREDERICK Henkels of Quarton Road were in Ann Arbor Jan. 4 for a get-together with former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Schultz.

Mrs. Gus Ofenstein entertained her pinocle club Jan. 8 at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Ofenstein of Putnam Drive.
