Westchester Women Set Fashion Show

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-9056

What could be nicer at this moment after the lull of the post-Christmas season than a luncheon and fashion show?

The Westchester Women's Club will do their best to make everyone feel downright perky when they gather at the Birmingham Athletic Club on Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 12:30 p.m. The entertainment will be "Modas-De-Les-Femmes-De-Westchester!"

Sounds exciting and the nicest part is, you don't have to be a member to enjoy the presentation. Guests will be welcome. In fact they may even lay out the "red carpet."

CHAIRMAN of the party is Mrs. Robert Mease, 602 Westbourne Drive. She and her committee assure those attending a "fun afternoon" but hope you will put in your reservations no later than Friday, Jan. 17. Tickets may be procured from Mrs. Mease.

The Westchester area has acquired a great number of small organizations with which to hold the residents' divided interests. There are the Social Service Group, the garden club, a youth activities group, bowling, knitting, bridge, golfing, art, tennis and, of course, their neighborhood association.

The latest group to join the fold is the "Tour Group" which is arranged monthly by the Chairman Naomi Hassell. Points of special interest in the Metropolitan Detroit area are visited.

NOW THAT the holidays are over, the Parents Club of St. Regis Parish hopes that the residents in the area are ready for some hard work.

Some 50 couples have signed up to participate in a variety show that the club will present later in the spring. Men in the parish who have shown an interest in forming a barbershop quartet met on Jan. 9 at the home of the Robert Anderson's, 31861 Vallen Court.

Anyone who has had experience along this line or would like to gain some has been asked to lend their support and help the group get organized. There will be a tryout party at the Anderson's on Sunday, Feb. 2.

Women and men who like to sing or dance, (perhaps both), and those who can play an instrument are also needed for this production.

IT WAS "dinner at seven" when Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruise and Mrs. Howard Keating Jr. cohosted a party in the Keating home on Darcy Drive honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faught who will soon be moving to Toledo, O., with their four sons, Bob, Jim, Tom and Mike.

At the same party they were saying "hello and welcome to our area" to Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Faught, who have recently been transferred here from Greenwich, Conn. At the party were Mrs. Howard Keating, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Underman, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson and Mary Jane Kirchner.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Mountain, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Radon and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bookmeyer, Jr.

THE MONTHLY meeting of the Maplebrook Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will take place at 12:30 pm. Wednesday, Jan. 22, at the home of Mrs. Carl Neppach, 460 S. Williamsbury. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Joseph Jasper and Mrs. Everett Harrison. The guest speaker will be Mr. H. R. Leighton who will show slides on the Detroit Zoo Gardens.

MR. AND MRS. Philip VandeValde of Westbourne Drive returned home on Jan. 5 with their three daughters, Mary Ellen, Cynthia and Anne, after having spent 15 days in Florida.

Their "home base" while in the sunny south was the Palm Ocean Villa in Pompano Beach and from it took many side trips. They were impressed with the Cypress Gardens and enjoyed the "jungle cruises."

The children especially liked the idea of the pool swimming and spent most of their time in the water. On the return motor trip the VandeValdes stopped in Knoxville, Tenn., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Dance and then stopped in Cincinnati, O., where they saw Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woeate.

THE BERKSHIRE branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will be one of the 10 branches which will take part in the meeting to be held in the Birmingham Community House on Tuesday, Jan. 21.

Mrs. William S. Kreis, president of the Berkshire branch, will

Lois Johnson Is Bride Of Peter Griffin Wilson

A candlelight wedding at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham united Lois Grace Johnson and Peter Griffin Wilson in marriage on Friday, Dec. 27.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Johnson, 4918 Bloomfield Lane, Birmingham. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wilson of Detroit.

MRS. PETER GRIFFIN WILSON

be one of the hostesses. The guest speaker will be Mrs. William J. Ullrich, who was the recipient of the national award in the Fry-singer International Fellowship and who has spent considerable time in Holland studying their gardening methods.

GUESTS AT the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Mid-disbury Lane, the week end of Jan. 10 were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Sweeney from Park Forest, Ill. The "gals" who were school chums, had a real "gab fest." Dining and wining took care of a week end that simply flew by.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Clark were among the couples from the area who attended the cocktail and dinner party held at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Tuesday, Jan. 14 when the Society of Automotive Engineers met for their annual convention.

WHEN the members of the St. Margaret Mary Guild met at the home of Mrs. J. Lecznicki, 3876 Wedgewood Drive, on Jan.

THE NEW MRS. WILSON wore an ivory tulle gown with appliques of alencon lace and a chapel train. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was attached to a circle of matching alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias.

Ruth Alice Johnson, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Penny Wilson, sister of the groom, Mary Ann Johnson and Judy Johnson, cousins of the bride from Knoxville, Tenn., and Patricia Bany of Birmingham.

They wore olive green satin floor length gowns accented with matching velvet piping at the waist. Their headpieces were of matching satin and they carried cascade bouquets of red carnations and variegated holly.

ALEX JOHNSON of Detroit was best man. Ushers were Jerome Smith, Ann Arbor; Dr. Charles Gehrke, Ann Arbor; and John Prodin, Livonia.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

Upon returning from their honeymoon in Stowe, Vermont, the couple will reside at the Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills where the groom is a science instructor.

8 they were entertained with slides of Austria and Germany, plus pictures of both East and West Berlin.

The following day the same beautiful colored slides were shown to the members of the St. Cecilia Guild at the home of Mrs. C. W. Piggott of Bradford Drive, through the courtesy of Mrs. John Gormley. Still more women who had the opportunity to view the pictures were the members of St. Angela's Guild who saw them at the St. Regis School Library on Tuesday.

THE MATTHEW McDonalds of Parkhurst Drive was another couple who hosted a party on New Year's Eve. "Great fun" was had by relatives and friends.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. L. LaVanway, Mr. and Mrs. James Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Malpell and Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald.
