

GERTRUDE CRIPPEN

AAUW Hears About Wayne's New Theatre

A member of the Wayne State University Classic Theatre Repertory Company was speaker Thursday before the Liberal Arts Study Group of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women.

Gertrude Crippen lectured on the new Shakespearean Theatre, assisted by Bryan Hull of the theatre's public relations staff.

"MISS CRIPPEN, who is working toward a doctorate in theatre, is cast as Cleopatra in the production of "Anthony and Cleopatra," the nurse in "Romeo and Juliet" and Calpurnia in "Julius Caesar." The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. George R. Jones, 902 Dowling Road, Birmingham. Mrs. Donald Hays, 2733 Buckingham, Birmingham, is study group chairman.

Concert

the culmination of the dreams of Richard Brown, instrumental music teacher in the Southfield schools. He says he is always eager to talk to young folks interested in performing serious music and to find a niche for them in his orchestra.

MRS. ERNEST J. COVERDILL of Lathrup Village reports she wants to talk to anyone interested in becoming a patron of the group. Tickets for the Jan. 20 concert may be purchased from Mrs. Coverdill, Mrs. Olavi Peters of Southfield, any member of the orchestra or at the door.

As men are not able to fight against death, misery, ignorance, in order to be happy, not to think of them at all.
