Zoning Still Unsettled At Wood Creek Farms

By NITA HARD

WOOD CREEK FARMS—Three original applicants of the city proposed zoning ordnance for the property located on the old Northside road were asked by a public hearing Jan. 8. The property is located on the north side of the Chatham road.

The applicants, M. S. Harrington and W. M. Gunstone, who are the owners of the property, have made several applications for zoning and have been granted a variance for the property. The variance was granted by the city council on Jan. 8.

The applicants have made several applications for zoning and have been granted a variance for the property. The variance was granted by the city council on Jan. 8.

Craggors Strike Twice in B'ham

Burglars struck twice in B'ham last week, and there were no arrests made in either case.

The first burglary occurred on Wednesday night, when a man entered through the window of a building at 3100 26th Ave. N.

The second burglary occurred on Thursday night, when a man entered through the window of a building at 3200 26th Ave. N.

Cager Killed In Auto Crash

A 15-year-old Woodstock High School basketball player was killed in an auto crash last week, and his parents were shocked and saddened by the news. The boy was struck by a car while he was standing outside a building in the Woodstock area.

The boy's parents have decided to file a lawsuit against the driver of the car.

B'nai B'rith Approves Charing Cross Road Improvement

Charing Cross Road improvement plans will be discussed by the board of directors of the British B'nai B'rith on June 1.

The plans include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the widening of the road, and the installation of new traffic signals.

The British B'nai B'rith is a Jewish organization that supports the development of Jewish communities around the world.

4-H Club Booster

Cited for his support of 4-H club by the Michigan legislature was Marshall Wells (left), farm editor of the Michigan 4-H Club. Wells, 65, Farmington, Michigan, was honored by the legislature for his services.

Wheatley Campaign Names Local Leader

Wheatley campaign manager, John B. Wheatley, has named a local leader for the campaign in Birmingham.

The local leader is Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wheatley, who have been active in the campaign.

Your Yearly Core Family Amusement Policy

Every year your family can enjoy all the year round fun of a core family policy at a lower than usual cost. The core policy provides unlimited use of facilities, including the pool, gym, and tennis courts.

Your family will enjoy the following benefits:
- Unlimited use of facilities
- Save money on membership fees
- No hidden costs

Are you ready to buy a core family policy this year? Contact us today for more information.