United Foundation Tops Area Goal

Contribution Over 63 Quota

The United Foundation Board of Directors on Wednesday announced that the total of all donations made for the 1964-1965 fiscal year has exceeded the goal of $63,000. The Foundation has received over 63,000 contributions from 903 donors, bringing the total contribution to $64,245.

This is the largest contribution ever made to the United Foundation, surpassing the previous record of $62,000 set in 1963.

B'field Schools
Schedule Tests on Role of Emotions

By SATULLA SLAON

"Special Writer"

Over the past few years, students in the B'field Schools have been taught to recognize the role of emotions in their lives. This year, the school will begin a new emphasis on teaching children about their emotions and how to manage them.

The school will begin with a series of lessons that will focus on identifying emotions, understanding their causes, and learning healthy ways to cope with them.

The lessons will be taught by trained counselors and will be integrated into the school day. The goal is to help students develop healthy emotional competence and resilience.

Hare Urges Purchase of 64 License Plates

Michigan motorists—more than 4 million of them—were urged to get their license plates changeable, by this year, by voluntarily participating in a program that will replace the current plates with new ones in 1966.

Hare said that he is in favor of the plan, and he has been talking with officials of the Michigan State Police about the feasibility of the program.

Wife of Chauncey Hare, John B. Hare, was on hand to support her husband's efforts.

Hare is scheduled to speak at a meeting of the Michigan State Police later this week.

Cost of Yule Decorations Up in B'ham

By LARRY NICK

The cost of yuletide decorations has increased in the Birmingham area this year, according to local merchants.

Plaques, lights, and other decorations have seen increases of up to 50% in prices.

"The cost of yule decorations is up this year," said Mr. Jones, owner of Jones' Christmas Decorations. "It's getting harder to find good decorations at reasonable prices.

Customers said they were willing to pay more for good decorations, but they said they would prefer to see more lower-priced options available.

"I don't mind paying more for good decorations," said Mrs. Smith, a customer. "But it's hard to find good decorations that aren't too expensive."
