Overture to Opera
To Open in B'field Hills

The next major opera to be played in the Boston area in 1984-85 will be "Overture to Opera," a program of excerpts from operas by Mozart, Beethoven, Verdi, Puccini, Bizet, and others. The program will include scenes from "Don Giovanni," "Fidelio," "Tosca," and "Carmen," among others. It will be presented by the Boston Opera Company, the only company in the region that performs operas regularly. The performance will take place on Tuesday, March 13, at 8 p.m. at the Opera House in Boston. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased through Ticketmaster.

Shortage of Teachers

There is a shortage of teachers in the B'field Hills school district. The district has had to hire substitute teachers for several classes, and some classes have been合并至 other classes. The school board is looking into hiring additional teachers, but it is unclear when this will happen.

Hills Begins Search for 2 Democrats

The Democratic Party is currently searching for candidates for two seats on the Hills Board of Selectmen. The seats are currently held by incumbent Democrats who are not seeking re-election. The primary election is on September 5, and the general election is on November 7.
