Obituary Notices

Mrs. Barbara Zuber's husband, Elwin, who was a retired farmer, passed away in Michigan. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Barbara Zuber, of Michigan, and his son, John Zuber, of Michigan.

Mrs. Alice R. Olson, a resident of Detroit, passed away peacefully in her home. She was survived by her husband, Mr. Ralph Olson, and her children, John, Mary, and Robert.

Dr. Bradford Seeley, a prominent doctor in Detroit, passed away suddenly in his home. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Helen Seeley, and their children, David, Susan, and James.

High 12 Club Sets Agenda

The High 12 Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening to discuss upcoming events and initiatives. The meeting was attended by members and guests from various areas of the community.

Quota

Quota members gathered to discuss the latest updates and plans for upcoming events and initiatives. The meeting was attended by members from various areas of the community.

Trips to Niagara Via Rail Sold Out

Trips to Niagara Falls via the Canadian National Railway have sold out. The demand for these popular trips has been overwhelming, with many people eager to see the falls and experience the beauty of Niagara.

Winter Driving Tests Underway

As winter approaches, the Michigan Department of Transportation is conducting winter driving tests to assess the performance of vehicles in snowy conditions. The tests are being conducted on various roads throughout the state to ensure safety and preparedness for winter conditions.

Nutmeg Maple

Nutmeg Maple is offering a special on winter sale specials from Ethan Allen. The sale includes discounts on selected items, such as tables and chairs. Don't miss out on these great deals!

Quote (Continued from A)

"In order to be extraordinary, one must first be ordinary." - Albert Einstein

The Daily News is a publication of the Detroit Free Press. It is the largest daily newspaper in the state of Michigan.