Church Has Choir of 'Alumni'

The Young People of First Methodist Church, Birmingham, were in charge of activities on Student Day recently. Senior members of the choir acted as hosts and sang. Portions of the worship service were led by Walter Dawson, Celesta Lorenzen, Edward Lystra, Jay Shutt, Robert Smith and Ron Wilcox. Some 30 college students acted as ushers. The group pictured above is called the Choir of Alumni, and is made up of college students who had been active in the church's musical programs. They handled the music at the morning service.

St. Hugo Sponsors Get-Together Dance For Congregation
St. Hugo of the Hills parish is sponsoring a get-acquainted dance for its members, Friday, Feb. 7, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the school gym. Though the Mardi Gras will be the theme, the dance will be informal and will feature regular and square dance forms. James Schultheis of Milford will provide the music and will call the square dances. Light refreshments will be served.

The various parish societies co-sponsor this event and proceeds will be given to the St. Hugo of the Hills library fund.

Tickets may be obtained from Altar Guild members after masses, Sunday Jan. 26 and Feb. 2, or by sending a self-addressed envelope and contribution to the rectory, Box 340, Bloomfield Hills.

Youth Sunday Observed at First Baptist
Youth Sunday will be just that at Birmingham's First Baptist Church. Young people of the church will be in complete charge of the Jan. 26 morning worship service.

As members and visitors enter the church, they will be greeted by the James Wood family and then ushered to their pews by Layne Triplett, David Poer, Charles Boltwood, David Anderson, George Atberholt, Donald Sawyer, Roger Edgington and Richard Rohl.

Joan Cates will open the worship service, followed by Michael Sawyer, who will give the opening prayer. John Osborne will read the scripture and Julie Poer will lead in the customary prayer for peace.

THEME FOR YOUTH Sunday is "The Peculiar Ones," which will be developed in brief messages by Eric Mulhberg, Robert Heavens, rich and Christine Howell. Music will be provided by the youth choir under direction of Charles Holtz.

Laura Redmond, Baptist Youth Fellowship president, is coordinating Youth Sunday, assisted by Rev. William Sutterlin, Minister of Christian Education.

Founder of World Medical Relief Plan Guest at Franklin
Mrs. Lester G. Auberlin, the founder of World Medical Relief, Inc., will be the guest speaker for the noon luncheon meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Franklin Community Church on Tuesday in the social hall of the church.

Articles concerning Mrs. Auberlin and her enormous volunteer project have appeared in the Reader's Digest and frequently in the newspapers.

Deviations will be given by Mrs. Roy Troutaud. Luncheon will be served by the members of Sarah Circle. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. J. H. Holmes, MA 6-3645.

Mackie Assistant NW Unitarian Guest
Irving J. Rubin, Executive Assistant to the State Highway Commissioner, speaks on "Metropolitan Area Freeways" Monday at Northwest Unitarian-Universalist Church, 28925 Northwestern Highway, Southfield. His address follows a dinner sponsored by the Northwest Church Men's Club. The talk is open to the public.

Following Rubin's talk the floor will be thrown open for a question and answer period. There is no charge for those who wish to come at 8:15 p.m. to hear the speaker.

Christian Women's Club Holds Forum On 'God's Strength'
"God's Strength for Our Day," was discussed by Mrs. Olan Hendrix, at the Christian Women's Club Luncheon, Jan. 16th at 12:30 p.m. at Devon Gardens, Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Laurence Flora, 1667 Island Lane, Bloomfield Hills, spoke concerning current book selections available to the group through the Christian Women's Book Club. She was also mistress of ceremonies for the program.

Hostesses included Mrs. William Dull, 4388 Christolm Trail and Mrs. Wayne Matheny, 6846 Crestway Drive, Birmingham.
