

Shoe Painting Workshop Slated

Milady can cover a pair of shoes to match her favorite outfit at a 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. workshop, Monday, Feb. 3, at the Oakland Branch YWCA in Clawson.

Mrs. Arthur H. Laffrey, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Ralph H. Houghton, of Huntington Woods, who learned the art in other branch shoe covering workshops, will lead the group.

Workshop women may bring or buy lunches for themselves and children during the 11:30-12:30 p.m. break. Reservations for the workshop may be called to the "YW" at LI 8-5800, and the supervised branch playroom will be open to children.

Needed working materials are a pair of closed pumps, one half yard of fabric, millinery glue and pins, a narrow grosgrain ribbon or bias tape, small scissors, tissue paper, a sturdy screwdriver and a case knife.

St. Thomas More Church Sets Sunday Open House

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1652

An "open house" is to be held in the newly completed church and rectory of St. Thomas More Roman Catholic Church on North Adams Road from 2-5 on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. William L. Anderson, pastor of St. Thomas More, will be present to welcome all those attending.

While the adults gather in the rectory for a tea the younger set will be invited to a classroom in the church for refreshments and movies during the social afternoon. Chairman and co-chairman for the event are Mrs. Milan Sablich of Townhill Drive and Mrs. Edward Fischer of Manderford Road.

Another committee led by chairman Mrs. James Bent of Rock Spring Road and co-chairman Mrs. Robert Newman, Jr. of E. Valley Chase Road, are working on their final arrangements for the church's pre-Lenten Mardi Gras dinner dance to be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 1 at Orchard Lake Country Club.

The "Tuesday Forum," a newly formed monthly adult discussion group met at St. Thomas More Catholic Church on Tuesday evening. Their guest speaker, Reverend Edward Lowry, spoke on the "Controversial Aspects of the Ecumenical Council." Those who wish to join the "Tuesday Forum" are welcome.

Kern Lake Garden Club members are personally inviting all their neighbors in the Bloomfield Hills Estates subdivision to join them for an Oriental-Italian buffet supper tonight, at East Hills Junior High School.

The buffet will begin at 6:30, followed by a "hootenanny" at 7:45 for the young and young at heart. The talented Miss Sixteen, Toni Moore, accompanied by guitar, banjo and repertoire of unusual folk songs, will highlight the hootenanny.

Planning the event that will benefit the garden club's scholarship fund is ways and means chairman Mrs. Donald DeArment of Parkman Drive. Those unable to attend the dinner but want to come to the hootenanny may purchase tickets at the door.

The hard-working club membership hopes to chalk up this event as another Kern Lake Garden Club success.

MANY AREA residents are arriving home from warmer climates while others chose the north country for their vacations. Home from California are the Lawrence Hoffstetters of Pine Hill Drive.

They spent their two week-stay visiting their daughter, Marcia, who is working in Burbank, and son, Larry, a junior at Arizona State. Larry joined his parents in Los Angeles for their visit.

Pasadena was another stop before the Hoffstetters departed for Birmingham.

VERO BEACH, Fla., was the vacation destination of the Fred Cornetts and son, Donald, of Hickory Heights Drive, for three weeks recently. Much of their time was spent golfing, swimming, sunning and touring Cypress Gardens and the Seminole Indian Reservation.

The Cornetts are now looking forward to a week's visit on Feb. 1 of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Cornett of Bangor, Me.

Returning home after vacationing in Florida, Nassau and then to Birmingham for the holiday season with their children, the George Colombos of Parklans Court, are Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Rose of Manassquan, N. J.

THE EDWARD DUFFEYS of Kenway Drive and son, Mike, have had a busy schedule on the past three weeks. They spent a week sunning at Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, arriving home on Christmas Eve.

On the Sunday, Mrs. Duffy entertained a group of friends at Springfield, O., returned to her studies last Monday after spending the holiday season with her parents, the Robert Rogers of Hickory Heights Drive.

Another good returning to school last week after spending the holidays at home is Barbara Burge, a junior at Michigan State. She was on the dean's list last term and a member of the J Council. Barbara is the daughter of the Frederick Burges of Far Hill Drive.

ENTERTAINING their "birthday club group" at a dinner party on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stuart of Meadowlark Court. The group has been meeting on birthdays for the past seven years and includes the John Sparks, the Cecil Halberts, the Don Suiters, the Henry Nelsons, the Paul Faulstichs and Mrs. Zoedene Adams, all of Grosse

Garden Clubs Set Mid-Year Conference

District I of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan will hold their mid-year meeting on next Thursday at the Woman's City Club. It was announced by the director, Mrs. Keith B. Wiloughby of Farmington.

The morning session is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. with seven state chairmen presenting the program, "Pillars for Program Points, and the Nick Ziesels of Satterlee Drive.

The Cecil Halberts and daughter, Owen, of Grosse Pointe were houseguests of the Stuarts for two days the previous week.

Planning", and the Charles W. Warren Co. showing slides of the recent flower show and table setting exhibition at their store.

AFTER LUNCHEON, Mrs. John W. Knight, Jr., of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, well-known throughout the middle west as a lecturer and writer in flower arranging, will give a creative demonstration, "New Dimension in Design", showing the abstract influence in flower arranging. Reservations for the day may be made to Mrs. Oris OptHolt, Lee Lane, Farmington.

Members of district I steering committee who are assisting in the planning for this meeting are Mrs. William S. Dehm of Beverly Hills, and Mrs. James Sweeney, of Bloomfield Hills.
