

WNFGA Sets Plans For Flower Show

Mrs. Fred Stefanski, general chairman of the forthcoming flower show planned by the Women's National Farm & Garden Association, held her first committee meeting and tea in her Birmingham home recently. Executive members from Birmingham present at the meeting were Mrs. P. N. Askounes and Mrs. Paul McCook. Others at meeting were Mrs. Frederic G. Garrison, Mrs. Leo W. Grace, Mrs. Wilson McClellan, Mrs. Walter Patterson, Mrs. William J. Ullenbruch, Mrs. H. Hollin Allen, Mrs. L. G. Hints, Mrs. Fred Trisley, Mrs. Donald Mills and Mrs. Parker Rockwell.

Proceeds from the May flower show will be given to the 4-H Clubs for their international farm youth exchange.

MISS SANDERS

June Rites

At an open house for relatives and close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Al E. Sanders of 5840 Crabtree Road, Foxcroft, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn Kay, to Roy John Ferguson of Chicago.

Miss Sanders is in her senior year at De Pauw University in Indiana and a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Her fiance, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Ferguson of Lansing, is a graduate of Michigan State University and affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

The couple plan a June 20 wedding.

Homemakers Host Home Economist

Mrs. Mary Hardy of the Oakland County cooperative extension service will describe functions of the organization at the 8 p.m. meeting, Monday, Jan. 27, of the Young Homemakers' Club of Oakland Branch, YWCA, Clawson.

The home economist's talk will focus on her work as Extension Service agent to the 110 home extension clubs in Oakland county.

Monday's program is open to all interested homemakers. The club meets the fourth Monday evening of the month at the "YW."

Women Collecting Skates For Children's Homes

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 9-9556

The Westchester Women's Club is doing it again. Making youngsters happy!

On Jan. 15 they began collecting old worn or discarded skates from residents in the area which they will take to children's homes periodically. Depot for the skates collection is Westchester School.

Their request for donations of Halloween surplus candy that had been collected on a "trick or treat" basis had met with such a tremendous cooperation from the children in the area that they feel confident they will be able to take a good supply of skates to unfortunate youngsters. The candy collection amounted to well over 100 pounds.

INSTEAD OF waiting until "spring cleaning time" to dispose of skates that are no longer being used by members of your family why not drop them off at the Westchester School today? The women of the Westchester Club intend to make weekly trips to the children's homes through Feb. 15.

If you have a sled or two not being used they would be happy to receive it, also. Mrs. Tommy Shannon, 2706 Heathfield Road, is chairman of this project. She is also in charge of youth activities in the area.

THE BROTHER RICE High School dinner-dance being held by the Mother's Club which was postponed last November will take place on Saturday at the Northwood Inn. Reservations call for 7 p.m. serving. Chairman of the party is Mrs. K. H. Duerr. Music is to be furnished by the Avalons.

Have noticed that all the teenagers in the area do not feel that they must conform—particularly in dress. One young man, a student at Derby, received a Russian cosack hat for Christmas and wears it with quite a flair.

Now he has switched to a French beret which looks quite sharp. Shows he's not playing any favorites with the European countries. He's All-American, too, because he just as frequently wears no head covering.

MR. AND MRS. Louis Desmond of Sherwood Drive hosted a cocktail party on Jan. 19 for 12 couples after which the entire group enjoyed the planned evening of a "Night in the Orient," which took place at the Armenian Cultural Center.

Another couple who invited friends in for drinks prior to the theater party, "A Night in the Orient," were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kent of W. Bradford Drive. When planning the cocktail party the number of guests rose from three to 20 couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Casey of Whysall Road attended a dinner party held at Red Run Country Club on Jan. 17. The affair was held by the North Woodward Shrine Club. In the Casey party were several couples from the east side of Detroit.

A PLEASANT way to say a fond farewell to a neighbor moving to another state is to have a luncheon in her honor. Mrs. Thomas LaVeck and Mrs. Gene Stoller cosponsored such a luncheon in the LaVeck home on Whysall on Jan. 16, honoring Mrs. Jack Lyons whose husband is being transferred to Dallas, Tex.

Naturally the party scene was "deep in the heart of Texas." To make certain Mrs. Lyons would not forget any of them, the women on guests each presented Mrs. Lyons with a pair of earrings.

Among those at the luncheon were Mrs. Vincent Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Holmes, Mrs. Jack Suddam, Mrs. Frank Wickham, Mrs. Robert Dembini, Mrs. Hugh Dunbar. Others were Mrs. William O'Connor, Mrs. Russell Pember, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. Maxine English.

WHEN SEVERAL of the Girl Scout troops in the area merged they were given the number 341. The troop is comprised of girls from Derby, Barnum, Holy Name and St. Regis.

These girls will have their winter campout the week end of Jan. 24-25. Approximately 20 girls are expected to enjoy this outing under the leadership of Mrs. Arnold Hook and co-leader Mrs. James Brosnan.

The Westchester Association will meet today at the Westchester School. The president, Edward Adams, will call the meeting to order at 8 p.m. The by-laws will be reviewed and the recommendations for revisions made.

The restriction committee will give a report and ideas for beautifying the area will be given. After the business meeting, Jim Scott, from the township office, will give a talk on the water problems and the situation at the moment. Following the information he has to give, there will be a question-and-answer period.

LUNCHEON at Carrie Lee's was enjoyed by the Cranbrook-Maple area birthday group on Jan. 16. Among those present were Mrs. John LaVrakas, Mrs. John Petrakis, Mrs. Richard Knudsen, Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. Barbara Werden, Mrs.

Tommy Taber, Mrs. Nick Mitchell Jan. 28, 1964

Others were Mrs. Lillian LaFontaine, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. Thad Machrowski, Mrs. Whit Dashiell, Mrs. Josephine Lane, Mrs. Edward Nelson, Mrs. John Trent and Mrs. Florence Mayo.

ON JAN. 3, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Volkman of S. Cranbrook Cross drove to Chicago, Ill., to attend the furniture show at the Furniture Mart in the W. U. City.

One of the unusual features of the show was the booth of one of the manufacturers who handed out hats of all styles and of all countries to match the personalities of the people. Alyce Volkman didn't say which kind were chosen for her husband and her.

While they were in Chicago two of their sons took off for different localities before he was sliding. Mike spent a week end at Caberfae while Jerry decided he would try the slopes at Boyne Mt. The Volkmans ventured to say that one of the hotels in Chicago had something new to offer in the way of night clubs. A clever spot is fashioned after Maxine's of Paris.

Former Auto Chief Cited in Hamtramck

Former Chrysler Corp. President William C. Newberg, 1411 Kirkwood, Bloomfield Hills, has been awarded a lifetime membership in the Fraternal Order of Police, Hamtramck, where he was president of Dodge and Chrysler, according to the group's annual installation of officers.

Newberg was cited for his "outstanding contributions to Hamtramck while he was president of Dodge and Chrysler," according to the organization.

at Caberfae. Another new couple to the area are Dr. and Mrs. George J. (Jim) Rock. They are residing at 28300 Southgate, Cranbrook Village. Dr. Rock is originally from the area and Mrs. Rock is a native of the U. P.

The Rocks have two children. They are Lisa Ann, 2, and John Martin, six months.

Mrs. Rock is a registered nurse. She attended Mrs. Sined Hospital School of Nursing. Dr. Rock is a graduate of Olivet and is in private practice in Birmingham. He is 106!

Mrs. Rock was honored recently at a get-acquainted coffee given by her neighbor, Mrs. Roger Tylian, also of Southgate.
