Tiny Snowmen Brighten Meals of Young Patients

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Ten members of the Beverly Hills Garden Club met at the Wetherby Road home of Mrs. LaRoy Roberts on Jan. 14, where they made 100 snowmen after their dessert luncheon.

As you may have guessed, the snowmen were not the regulation type at all, but styrofoam miniatures which right now are brightening the meals of patients at Children's Hospital as tray favors.

Those who most enjoy every month to work on this particular service project with chairman Mrs. Bekke are Mrs. Robert McKee, Mrs. Otto Helke, Mrs. David Raup, Mrs. Ralph Sieger, Mrs. Waldron Templemar, Mrs. Ralph Thomson, Mrs. Vance Dergis, Mrs. John Boyton, Mrs. William Dehm, and Mrs. William Penny.

Another service project of the same club is headed by Mrs. Darrell Mould. Twice a month Mrs. Mould and three other members of the group, who are chosen on a rotating basis, dress themselves to the handicapped and retarded children at Tyler Elementary School in Oak Park. Arriving with arm loads of flowers, they offer horticultural therapy and the pleasure of creating things of beauty to these children, who are quite pleased with their projects.

WHEN MRS. JAMES Biondo of Beverly Road has a good idea, she stays with it.

Last September, she got to thinking about how to raise funds for the Discolored Cloistered Carmelite Order of Nuns at Marygrove College which her sister-in-law, John 28 Beechwood Road, Blondo decided upon two card parties and has been working toward this goal since last fall.

As soon as preparation, she was ready to open her home to 18 tables of card-playing women last Thursday evening, and again on Sunday afternoon. Sunday also included a buffet supper for the 72 who attended. On each occasion, 35 donated door prizes were given away.

Mrs. Blondo, a mother of six, was assisted by her two sisters, Mrs. Fred Kostedt and Mrs. John Hietman of Beechwood Road, and is also grateful for her many helpful neighbors. All proceeds will be used to support the cloistered nuns who spend most of their time in prayer.

ON SATURDAY, Jan. 11, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Robbins of Sheridan Drive, drove to Chicago to see sister-in-law Patricia Robbins portray the Virgin Mary in the "Play of Herod." Featuring musical instruments dating back to the 12th century, the play was held in the Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ricelli of Amherst, hosted a party last Sunday for 20 of Mr. Ricelli's employees honoring the retire-

MISS DAVEY

Soon to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Davey, Jr., 156 Wadsworth Lane, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Richard James Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun, of Highland Park.

Miss Davey's fiance is a graduate of Wayne State University and is working as a data processing salesman in Toledo, Ohio. A March 7 wedding is planned at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

ment of Mrs. Gladys Stimpson.

THE SECOND session of the modern math program will be explained to parents by Sister Rose Anthony at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 30, in the social hall of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Edward

Fisher, Mrs. Leslie Meisies, Mrs. Joseph Murray, Mrs. Roger Touhey, Mrs. Edward White, Mrs. Clayton McPhail, Mrs. Howard Soney, Mrs. Michael McCabe, and Mrs. Louis Lamb.

The Valley Woods School library recently received a Junior Scout's handbook, a Brownie handbook, a book of games, and a copy of "Little Women," at a P.T.A. meeting, asking the formal presentation to principal Duane Fisher were Cheryl Larson, Stephanie Flajole, Lisa Van Deusen, Diana D'Angelo, and Linda Champagne.

The donation of the books was a combined service project of Mrs. George LaPenna's Troop 366, Mrs. Maurice Weiner's Troop 305, Mrs. Norman Lean's Troop 221, Mrs. Arthur Bobarg's Troop 386, and Mrs. John Champagne's Troop 665.

SEVERAL NEIGHBORS met on Tuesday, Jan. 14, at the Amherst Road home of Mrs. Richard Lovemaster to celebrate by way of a shower the Christmas Eve adoption of baby Jason by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adams. Those attending were Mrs. Victor Lauritsen, Mrs. Ray Long, Mrs. John Hoard, Mrs. Leon Ricelli, and Mrs. Donald Terak.

Members of the Greenfield-Beverly Hills Improvement Association are asked to remember their evening of tree ice-skating on Sunday, Jan. 26, at the Eton Park rink.

Church's Mission Is Speaker's Topic

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2824

"The Church's Mission in and to a Changing Society" is the topic which the Rev. Henry Stines will speak at the Episcopal Churchwomen's luncheon on Wednesday at the Church of the Advent.

Rev. Stines is dean of the McCookery Convocation of the Episcopal Church. In charge of the luncheon, which starts at 12:15, is Mrs. Robert Jenkins.

BRAES OF Bloomfield will hold its annual dinner-dance tomorrow night at Sylvan Glen Inn. The inn was also chosen by Braes Three Association as the setting for its annual meeting held last Saturday night.

December winners of the Association's couples bridge tournament were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin, Mrs. Gordon Fowle, Mrs. Clifford Jack, Gerald Matz and Jack Gorsuch. Top scores at the midway point in the tournament are Mrs. Matz and Bill Bishop.

Officers for 1964 will be elected by the Brookfield Highlands Garden Club at its meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. K. Hillcoat, 2611 Ogden Drive.

MR. AND MRS. John Phelps of Walnut Lake Road gave their annual winter party Friday evening at their lakefront home for members of the adult choir of Trinity Methodist Church in Highland Park. About 40 guests enjoyed a buffet supper and evening of ice-skating.

Mrs. Richard Piersol of Darra-moor Road invited 20 neighborhood women to a coffee Jan. 14 to meet her new next-door neighbor, Mrs. Kenward Hensie.

The Hensies mover here from Highland Park the week before Christmas. They have five children, Michael, 12, Danny, 10, Brian, 7, Mary Lynn, 4, and Timothy, 3.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Goulde of Covington Road left last week end for Brazil where he will take up his new assignment in Sao Paulo. Among the pleasant memories of Birmingham they are taking with them is the farewell breakfast given in their honor at the Birmingham Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers on Jan. 12.

Other guests included the Bill Pauls, Robert McDonalds and Don Battys.

This past Christmas will always be an outstanding one for the George Campbells. It was the first one celebrated in their new home on W. Newland Drive; then, on the day after Christmas, their first child was born, a daughter, Rose Lynn.

The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell of Snowshoe Circle.

CHARLES STUCKEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stuckey of Fieldbrook Road, arrived in San Francisco on Jan. 10 to start his new job with Price Waterhouse Co. On the drive to California, he stopped over in Aspen, Colo., for four days of skiing with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Waranowicz and their children, Mark and Susan, of Quanton Road returned on Jan. 7 from a two-week visit in St. Petersburg, Fla., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ganas.

DWIGHT WILLIAM Nibbelink, a sophomore at Michigan State University, has been initiated into Delta Upsilon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nibbelink of Shore Hill Road.

Mrs. Clayton Detmers of Long Lake Shore Drive entertained her bridge club last Thursday evening.
