

Menscola Tea Is Planned

The Birmingham group of the Menscola Guild for the Lourdes Archdiocesan Nursing Home, will host the annual membership tea at the Birmingham Community House Sunday, Jan. 25, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Edwin J. Koran, chairman of the tea, will be assisted by Mrs. William Hefferan and Mrs. Edward Stenger.

In 1959 Aaron Mendelsohn gave his estate on Scott Lake, named "Menscola Manor," to Edward Cardinal Mooney. The property was then given to the order of the Sisters of St. Dominic, to be used as a convent until such time a nursing home could be established.

At present there are only a score of patients. Ground will be broken this year for a hundred-bed nursing home for the chronically ill. This institution is being inaugurated with special consideration for people of limited means.

ON MADEMOISELLE'S BOARD
Mademoiselle magazine's College Board has named two Birmingham students at the University of Michigan as part of their 1964 student staff.

Becky Black and Marcia Muller will report news from the University to the magazine, and are eligible to compete for the 20 guest editorships that will be awarded in May. The women were judged from their entries in either art, writing, fashion, merchandising, promotion or advertising.

Tea Honors House Guests

Mrs. Clarence Hatch, Jr., of Bradley Blvd. entertained recently at an afternoon tea honoring both her mother, Mrs. Robert Richardson of Boca Raton, Fla., and her daughter, Chris Forster, who was home from Bradford Junior College. From left, it's Mrs. Hatch, Mrs. Richardson and Chris.

Mrs. Scripps Heads Annual Style Show

Mrs. William J. Scripps, of Bennington Drive, Bloomfield Hills, is general chairman for Fashion Scope—1964, sponsored by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

This year's annual event will be held March 3 and 4 in J. L. Hudson Company's auditorium. At a tea given recently in Mrs. Frank Donovan's home in Grosse Pointe, tickets for the show were distributed to committee heads, officially marking the start of sales.

Assisting Mrs. Scripps are committee chairmen Mrs. John D. Daniels of Bloomfield Hills, tea chairman, Mrs. Victor Wertz, patroness tickets; Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair, general tickets; Mrs. W. David Kludt, hostess chairman; Mrs. Langerman Sullivan, invitations.

GUEST OF HONOR at the tea was Madelyn Cox, fashion coordinator and commentator for Fashion Scope. She discussed forthcoming fashion trends and plans for the March showings.

MRS. SCRIPPS

According to Mrs. Richard W. Tucker, president of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, proceeds from the fashion show will benefit the Orchestra's maintenance fund.

Other guests at the tea included directors of the Women's Association, past presidents, honorary officers and advisory board members.

Back in Sunny South

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn W. Smead and daughter, Susan, have returned to their winter residence at Sea Island, Ga., following a brief visit in their Middlebelt Road home. Before departure, the Smeads entertained her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Kreg at a cocktail and supper party. Left to right it's Susan, Mr. Smead, Mrs. Kreg, Mr. Kreg and Mrs. Smead.

Bridal Pair To Live Here

Following their marriage Jan. 11 in Fruitland, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. W. Clifton Randall are remaining in the South until April, when they will arrive in Birmingham to make their permanent home at his residence on Shirley Drive. Mrs. Randall is the former Mrs. Ethel Dress of Fruitland Park.

She is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Windsor, Ont., and her husband received his bachelor architecture degree from the University of Michigan. He is a life member of Birmingham Moslem Shrine, was listed in Who's Who in Engineering in 1941 and the International Blue Book in 1948. He is retired as chief engineer and director of research for Fenekas, Inc.
