Home Movies Mirror Fun For Travelers

From now until there’s a break in the weather, students can take their cameras into town in search of a good film. Most people have been fascinated by the new Birmingham Business School, and are anxious to see what the school looks like outside.

Suburban Scene

There’s Going To Be A Ball—So They Say

by Mary Ellen Mead, Society Editor

According to a couple of metropolitan papers, there’s going to be another Methodist Ball. The girls downtown claim (and we believe them) that this inimitable wing ding will follow the same old pattern except for the date, which has been changed from May to October. We haven’t heard anything official about our couple customers, but we have heard that the young people who are planning the ball are very enthusiastic about it. We hope that they have a good time and that the ball is a success.

LATHURP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Recess Is Over

By GLOBAE JENNET
MA 4-357

The Village Women’s Dance Club received the go-ahead for their newest and largest dance yet. The dance was held on Saturday evening at the Cranbrook Village Community House, and was a great success. The dance was sponsored by the Cranbrook Village Women’s Council and was attended by over 200 people.

When writing an essay or in a newspaper, make sure to cite your sources properly. This will help you avoid plagiarism and ensure that you are giving credit where credit is due. It will also make your writing more credible and help your reader follow your arguments more easily.

Youngsters To Hear About Camps

M. B. R. C. (Rev.), representative of St. John’s Camp for Boys and Magna Vista Camp for Girls, will speak on the subject of camping Thursday, June 19, at 8 p.m. in the Women’s Benefit Room of the Cranbrook Village Community House. The talk will be given in English, and those interested in attending are invited to come.

Scorpioismites Slate Myrtle Lobbitt

Last personality of the Scorpioismites was at the National Cathedral yesterday. Miss Myrtle Lobbitt was introduced to the audience as the new member of the Scorpioismites. Miss Lobbitt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lobbitt, and is a student at the National Cathedral.

BAC Honors Outgoing President

Frank C. Murphy, Jr., outgoing president of the BAC, was honored by club members last night at the Fort President’s Ball. The ball was held at the Fort President’s Ball and was attended by over 300 people. Murphy was presented with a special award at the ball, and was named the “Outstanding Alumnus” of the year.

When writing an essay or in a newspaper, make sure to cite your sources properly. This will help you avoid plagiarism and ensure that you are giving credit where credit is due. It will also make your writing more credible and help your reader follow your arguments more easily.