Neighborhood Notes

By Mrs. Penry Hamilton

5138 New England Ave.

S. W. House and Home, comparing from a local school, reported that in the class they are teaching the children about the importance of eating fruits and vegetables. They will probably be continuing her classes for about two more weeks.

The next event that will be held at the school is the Easter basket sale, which the children are planning on making. The baskets will be sold at a local grocer in the neighborhood.

Back Home

Following an absence of nine weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert and their daughter, Susan, returned to their home in Washington, D.C. They were accompanied by the family’s beloved dog, Lucky.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 123 South Street, welcomed their first son, John, into the world on Jan. 5. The baby, to be named Michael, was born at 3:15 a.m. on Tuesday, weighing 7 pounds, 3 ounces.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Back Home

Following an absence of nine weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert and their daughter, Susan, returned to their home in Washington, D.C. They were accompanied by the family’s beloved dog, Lucky.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 123 South Street, welcomed their first son, John, into the world on Jan. 5. The baby, to be named Michael, was born at 3:15 a.m. on Tuesday, weighing 7 pounds, 3 ounces.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.

Kalamazoo Pressy Honored by Alumni

Lael P. Stearns, Jr., 121 East Market Street, presented the local alumni of the Kalamazoo College with a special award for their support and contributions to the school. The award was given at a banquet held at the College on Saturday evening.

On Committee for Benefit

Mrs. Edward Peet (from left), Mrs. Margaret Gwyer, and Mrs. Robert Zike are among local women planning a benefit performance of "A Man for All Seasons" at the Lakeland Theater on April 18. The proceeds will be used for scholarships for students attending the College of Arts and Sciences at Washburn University.

Realistic

Artisti is today’s number one favorite. The local group held their annual benefit this week.