BIRMINGHAM - BLOOMFIELD

Snow Party Marks Jill's Ninth Birthday

By MARTI CARN

January is a perfect month to give a snow party, and Jill Humberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Humberg of Bloomfield Village, decided on just that for her ninth birthday celebration.

Brownie luncheon invitations, designed by Jill and her mother, were received by Susan Byun, Jana Maxwell, Becky White, Susan Richard, Debbie Zawadski, Amy Segura, Pam Walker, Barbara Copland, Susan Reisz, Leslie Butle, Cathy Sheldon, Wendy Winstead, Kristin Smedling, Darla Black, Nancy Tedesco, Kim Schmidt, and Elaine Fiebe.

A snowman birthday cake centered the luncheon table, which was covered with a snow scene, decorative snowman making an appearance at plaided favors, and tiny little toys. The table was decorated with a large 10-foot snowman, sled racing, snowmen's nests, cutting snowflakes, pick-up-the- snowman, and lots of thoughts and making enough puffy snowballs. The little hostess, with a red velvet bow tucked in her blonde ponytail, wore a pink hooded dress adorned with red frosting, a matching sweater over her shoulders and red patent leather shoes.

Mrs. GEORGE COPE has returned to Birmingham following a two-month visit in Madison, Fla., with her son-in-law and daughter, Carly and Mr. Robert P. Kroop and their children Kathy, 3, and two-month-old Patty.

Mrs. Alice B. Blanton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., accompanied her daughter on the motor trip back to Birmingham in order to attend the wedding of her son Charles E. Blanton to Vickie Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Beard of Tuscaloosa, Ala., in Birmingham. The couple were married at Christ Church, Greenwood, Jan. 16.

Officers for the Birmingham Junior League were installed at the first spring supper party on Sunday at the Safford-Woodrow-Denby home.

The neighborhood gathering was in honor of Mrs. and Mrs. James S. Dickerson, who are moving from Birmingham to Rochester. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Hulley, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Guildford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bone, Mr. and Mrs. John Handley, Mr. and Mrs. David E. White, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dickerson and the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Angermeier.

Rink Adicts

"Are you tired of cocktails, fancy foot, dressing up and paying for it? Well then, come on out and eat bread with the Adicts family.

So read the invitation sent to 25 families in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adicts and their neighborhood luncheon was a hit.

About 200 adults and their children converged on the Rink Club to eat hot! Sunday to enjoy skating, racing, races, and last but not least, the traditional honey pie.

Among those attending the soirée were the Williams, Semmets, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McChesney, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hayes, the John Mitchells, the Jack Smeddings, Mr. and Mrs. John Gorjian, the Dave Marks, and Mr. and Mrs. William Carrick.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Dolfin, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pardee, the Dick Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Semmets, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cousins, the Donald O'Connell's, the William O'leary's, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kelly, the Jack Watters, Mr. and Mrs. Jack and the Carl Eltzs.
