Any Occasion Sparks Festivity

By MARTI CAHN

Birthdays of the thirteen grandchildren of Harold W. H. Burrows...

THE WILLIAM H. McGaughey family, formerly of Bloomfield Hills...

Mr. McGaughey accepted the duties of group vice president in charge of public relations for the National Association of Manufacturers...

Last minute details, such as selling the Guilford Road home, detailing some furniture for the New York residence...

The last was a luncheon given Monday at the Detroit Athletic Club by a group of members who call themselves "The Plungers" because they are regular swimmers...

Mrs. Cope and daughter, Mrs. Earle Henderson; Mrs. Joseph L. Newman and Mrs. Stuart W. Frankford.

Mrs. McGaughey's farewell gift was an exquisite handmade brandy glass which was chosen by fellow plungers as a toast to good health and happiness in her new home.

MR. AND MRS. John L. Thornhill of Bloomfield Village are holding a series of dinner parties to which friends are invited with the announcement "We will serve a cocktail and feed you if you will, in return, view our movies".

Those present on Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hatch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chope, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Sackfow, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Nick J. Rakas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lund, Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Davidson.

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

by MRS. PEGGY HAMILTON MI 6-2532

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gee and three-year-old Billy, 1540 Haynes, Birmingham, departed Jan. 26 for a two-week vacation in Miami, Fla. They will be guests of Gess's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant I. Gee...

MRS. NICK Sterlizza, 1851 Mansfield, gave a dinner party for Mrs. Anthony Prisciandaro at La Scala restaurant on Jan. 17. The 32 guests who helped plan the surprise showered Mrs. Prisciandaro with gifts for the baby she is expecting the latter part of February. Mrs. John J. Shada, Female, provided entertainment with an inspiring oration entitled "A Tribute to Mother".

Hostesses at a surprise shower for Mrs. Prisciandaro on Jan. 21 were Mrs. Martin Moore, Mrs. Joseph C. Olawoy, and Mrs. Otho Stevenson. Thirty-five friends and neighbors were invited to the party at Mrs. Moore's home, 1791 Bowers, Birmingham.

Prisciandaro returned to work Monday, Jan. 20 for the first time since he suffered a heart attack Oct. 15.

MR. AND MRS. Walker Calderwood, 950 Oxford, took daughters Cindy and Barbara and son, Scott skiing at Caberfee the weekend of Jan. 17. Cindy, a sophomore at Seaholm, happened to encounter some of her friends on the slopes — the Camp and Trip Club from Derby Junior High school. "Small world," says Cindy.

A baby was born Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Dain R. McKown (Joyce Young of Rochester). He has been named Scott Young. The McKowns, 1686 Hazel, have three other children, all boys.

MARIA FRANCESCA is the name chosen for baby girl Bulone. She was born Jan. 12. Her mother and father are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Bulone (Fran Hendricks, Birmingham), 388 Greenwood. This makes three girls and two boys for the Bulones who used to live at 1650 Hazel.

LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Club Presidents to Be Feted at Tea

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

A President's Day tea will be held on Feb. 3 in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Congregational Church, Lathrup Village. Hosting the affair will be the Lathrup Women's Club. Honored guests will include the presidents of local clubs and past presidents of the Lathrup Women's Club.

Officers of the Michigan State Southeastern District and Oakland County Federation Clubs will be invited, along with many wives of ministers from local churches.

"These Changing Times" will be the topic used by special guest speaker, Judd Arnett, when he speaks at the monthly meeting.

MR. ARNETT is a columnist, a member of the editorial board of the Detroit Free Press and he has traveled extensively in Africa, Europe, Canada and the United States.

He began his career working for a weekly paper, then on to a smaller daily paper and finally to the Free Press in 1939.

Hostess for the day will be Mrs. Ned Corbett. Assisting her will be Mrs. Paul Butcher, Mrs. Edward Lundberg, Mrs. Gordon Lawton, Mrs. Milton Thackerberry and Mrs. Edward Thurber, Jr.

The business meeting will begin at 1 p.m. The tea is open to all ladies who are residents of Lathrup Village.

one night out of the year and call it "Club Advertising Night."

Tonight is the night, (Jan. 30) when the members of the group will meet at 6:30 at Howard Johnson's Restaurant at 10 Mile and Northwestern.

Following dinner the members will talk for about two minutes each and be able to pass out samples and catalogues. The every-member participation program will prove to be a lot of fun in the new year.

Also exposed to the wares of the Southfield Optimists, will be special guests, Ralph Bonanza, president of the Southfield Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Harold Rowson. In defense these gentlemen will discuss the functions of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and their activities in the community.

"GRANDMA'S HERBS" will be the topic discussed by Mrs. Hardy at the Feb. 3 meeting of the Cranbrook Village north branch of WNFGA.

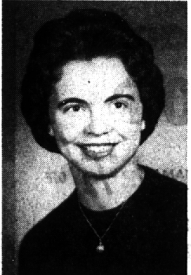

Mrs. Claude Watkins of Bainbridge Drive will open her home for the 12:30 meeting. Co-hostess for the afternoon will be Mrs. Mervin Kline and Mrs. Fred Thaldorf.

MISS APSEY

June Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn I. Apsey, 1954 Webster, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kara Lynne, to John T. Hupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant O. Hupp of Hazel Park. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Seaholm High School, and is presently employed. Her fiancé is a graduate of Hazel Park High School. A June 27 wedding is planned.

MISS SLADE

To Be Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Slade of Kentwood Road, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen, to Roy Boyer, son of Mrs. Leonard Willis of Battle Creek.

Miss Slade is a senior at Albion College, where she is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Her fiancé, a graduate of Albion, is a student in the Wayne State University Medical School and affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The young couple are planning a June wedding.

THE LATHRUP Supper Club dancers dusted off their dancing shoes and got together for a January dance recently.

Chairmen of the most recent get-together was Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson. Helping them make the first dance of the new year a success were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Owen, Mr. and Mrs. William Provencher and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trevillian.

The new caller, who will alternate with the old standby, Duce Williams, is Mr. Bruce Olson.

Dancing to Mr. Olson's calls at the January dance were the Richard Hoffmans who came as the guests of the Ray Garrisons. Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson came as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Storey. And Joanne O'Brien, daughter of the Angus O'Briens, also was a guest enjoying the calls.

WHEN YOU get together with the "boys," it is hard not to expand your product or service. So the Optimist Club of Southfield decided, with this thought in mind, that they would set aside
