

Project HOPE Gals Gather for Lunch

Birmingham resident Mrs. Earl E. Weston, president of the women's division for Project HOPE, presided over a recent luncheon that honored volunteers who have worked for the project.

A singing trio, under the direction of Clarence Luckman of Bloomfield Hills High School, sang a special tribute to the group.

Winter Rites

The engagement of Ann Nichols to John Frederick Schaefer has been announced by her parents, Mrs. Maxine Nichols of 698 Pleasant Avenue, Birmingham, and James R. Nichols of Pontiac.

Miss Nichols is a graduate of Southham High School and is attending Michigan State University. Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Schaefer, 1009 Stratford Lane, Bloomfield Hills and of Sarasota, Fla., is a graduate of Cranbrook School. He is affiliated with Psi Upsilon Fraternity and is also attending Michigan State.

A December wedding is planned by the couple.

MISS NICHOLS

Engaged

At a dinner party held at her Schenectady, New York home, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rippton announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann Margaret, to Lt. Peter Burr Loomis IV, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Loomis III, of 959 Gordon Lane, Birmingham.

Miss Rippton is a graduate of Syracuse University where she also did graduate work in political science. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority and Phi Beta Kappa, honorary association. Her fiancé, a graduate of Princeton University where he was a member of the Terrace Club, is presently serving as communications officer on the U.S.S. Fort Snelling.

HOURS OF WORK go into planning a large card party, but committee members (left) Mrs. Raymond E. Bean, Mrs. Glenn Redman and Mrs. Kenneth Holloway have fun, trying on their Alice-in-Wonderland hair bows for the Mad Hatters card party sponsored by the Beverly Hills PTA.

'Mad Hatters' To Top PTA Card Party

Preparations for the annual Beverly Hills PTA "Mad Hatters" card party began to get into full swing when Mrs. Kenneth Holloway, general chairman, met with her various committees at the home of Mrs. Raymond E. Bean on Locherbie Avenue.

Heading the committees for the Feb. 21 affair are Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Douglas Tryeman, Mrs. Ted Sura, Mrs. Glenn Redman, Mrs. Jack Witzig, Mrs. Lawrence Avison and Mrs. Grant MacKenzie.

The "Alice-in-Wonderland" theme will prevail via costumes at the card party, beginning at 8 p.m. at the all-purpose room of the Beverly elementary school. Bridge, pinocle and other card games will be played and refreshments and door prizes are featured.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Alger Sheldens Jr. Take Jamaican Honeymoon

Kirk in the Hills Church in Bloomfield Hills was the setting for the marriage of Carol Sue Hopkins to Alger Shelden, Jr. on Jan. 25 at a single ring ceremony performed by Rev. Harold DeWindt.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold John Hop-

MRS. ALGER SHELDEN, JR. kins, 20152 Forestwood Drive, Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Alger Shelden, Sr., 500 Provencal Road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

FOR HER wedding, the bride wore a Galina-inspired ivory silk alpaca gown enhanced with a bateau neckline and cuffed sleeves. A deep band of Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls decorated the hemline, while the modified bell skirt fell into a cathedral train. The bride's veil was an heirloom lace mantilla, and she carried an ivory French rose-on-astem with three rose buds.

Mary Gail Crisman of Rochester served as the honor attendant. She wore a Dior blue brocade gown with a bell-happed skirt, and carried white camellias.

THE BROTHER of the groom, Francis Duffield Shelden, served as best man. Ushers included James J. Hopkins, brother of the bride; Arthur V. Diétrich, Jr., Frederick A. Peck, James R. Tetzels, Hilary R. Micou, Jr., and Garl Melchers Stroh, Jr.

Mrs. Hopkins wore a garnet French silk velvet suit accented with a pink silk blouse for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a beige silk alskaine dress with matching accessories, the maternal grandmother, wore a pink lace dress and two white orchids.

The Algers will make their home in Grosse Pointe Farms.

PTA Notes

The Adams School Frolic is scheduled for Feb. 7 from 3:10 to 7 p.m. this year. The event will feature a white elephant sale, fish pond, 100-a-loop, ring toss, bowling, duck shoot, and cake walk.

A chuck wagon supper, slated from 5 to 7 p.m., will feature tuna and ham casseroles, baked beans, tossed salad, cake, coffee and milk.

The baked goods sale, featuring cakes, cupcakes, pies, fudge, cookies and breads, will begin at 11 a.m. Co-chairmen for the affair are Mrs. R. F. Ganiard and Mrs. Endre Mayer.

PIERCE SCHOOL PTA has slated a Children's Fair for Feb. 21 from 4 to 9 p.m.

Featured will be "Two Past Guns for Hire," a 45-minute program of gun swirling, target shooting and electronically-timed fast draws. A talk on safety, along with a display of old-time guns, will be included. The shows are scheduled for 6 and 8 p.m.

Parents are invited to have supper at the catered dinner in the cafeteria or in the snack bar. A cake sale, movie booth, and other skill games will round out the evening.

ELECTION OF officers will be held at the Feb. 3 meeting of the Hickory Grove PTO at 8 p.m. A report will also be given on the Gamo-O-Rama held Jan. 18.

The Oakland County Sheriff's office will present the program on mouth-to-mouth rescue.
