

MISS RAMSEY

MISS BAUKNIGHT

Autumn Plans

Professor and Mrs. John A. Ramsey of East Lansing announce the engagement of their daughter, Rae Louise, to James D. Flemming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Flemming, 6450 Malvern, Birmingham.

The bride-elect will graduate from Michigan State University in June. Her fiancé, a graduate of Michigan State, is a Master's candidate at Wayne State University.

An early Fall wedding is being planned by the young couple.

June Rites

At a family dinner in their S. Glengary home in Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bauknight announced the engagement of their daughter, Vanita Dore, to Thurman Elwood Riddle of Alliance, Ohio.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Mt. Union College in Alliance where she was associated with Alpha Zeta Delta, is presently teaching in the Columbus, Ohio schools. Her fiancé is a junior at Mt. Union College and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The young couple are planning a June wedding.

International 'Fellows' Honored by AAUW

Birmingham members of the American Association of University Women shared an opportunity with Mrs. Preston Weir and Mrs. Carl O. Barton in becoming acquainted recently with two AAUW International "fellows."

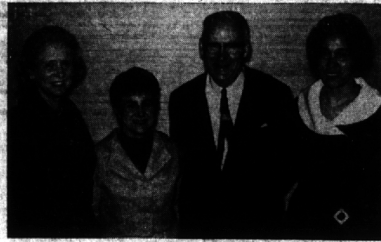

Maria Aparecida Aguiar from Brazil and Matilda Y. Sayegh from Beyruth, Lebanon, took time from their studies at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor to visit the Birmingham area over the weekend. They were the houseguests of Mrs. G. Knight Houghton, 1555 Oxford Road.

MRS. H. S. McFarland, AAUW Birmingham Branch president, opened her Lakewood Drive home for Sunday morning coffee to give Miss Sayegh and Mr. Barton a chance to meet. Miss Sayegh is working toward her Ph.D. in public health on the Carl O. Barton

International Fellowship, sponsored by the local AAUW branch to honor Barton's support of the branch's annual fall book sale.

AAUW locally sponsors two projects to earn funds to support the national Fellowship program—the fall book sale and spring fashion show.

Mrs. McFarland has announced a 1964 fall international Fellowship named for Mrs. Weir, past president of the Birmingham Branch and currently secretary of the Michigan Division of AAUW. Proceeds from this year's fashion show to be presented by

MRS. WEIR (FROM LEFT), MISS AGUIAR, MR. BARTON AND MISS SAYEGH

Jacobson's on Wednesday, Feb. 25, at 1 p.m. at Cranbrook Auditorium, will add to this fellowship and to the local grants for area AAUW grants.

Summer Rites

The engagement of Patricia Lucas to Thomas Hamilton Jeffs II was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Lucas of 1150 No. Glengary Road, Bloomfield Village, at a small family dinner on Jan. 24.

Miss Lucas is a graduate student at the University of Michigan and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Jeffs, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Raymond Jeffs of Grosse Pointe Farms, graduated from the University of Michigan where he received his Master's degree in business administration.

An August wedding is planned in Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Show Business Calls Members Of St. Regis

The well-known phrase, "there's no business like show business" has been adopted by the parishioners of St. Regis parish for their next venture, a variety talent show slated for late April. Margaret Remondino, of Holy Name parish, will be director of the show, while Helen McKenna will do the choreography.

A TRYOUT party will be held on Sunday afternoon at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Southfield near 13 Mile Road.

An attempt will be made to organize an orchestra, individual men's and women's singing choruses, women's dancing groups and possibly a ballroom dancing chorus. A dance number for teenage girls is also being considered.

VOLUNTEERS ARE needed to act as master of ceremonies, or play a musical instrument including guitars, piano or even the bongo drums. Amateur magicians or ventriloquists are also welcomed.

IN ADDITION to the obvious need for performers, experienced hands are needed to head up the make-up department, sell tickets, lay out and print programs and tickets and also help serve refreshments. Typing and sewing committees are also being organized.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Robert Anderson, 31861 Vallen Court.
