

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Local Couple

Local Louise Marshall became the bride of Gerald Arthur LeRoy at a candlelight ceremony on Jan. 28 at the Central Woodward Christian Church in Detroit. Rev. Fred Perry officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harold Marshall, 2625 W. Lincoln, Birmingham, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ewan LeRoy, 1224 Margaret, Beverly Hills.

FOR HER wedding, the bride wore a princess-styled white satin gown with a bouffant skirt that swung into a bubble back, ending in a slight train. The bodice of the long-sleeved gown was encrusted with seed pearls and crystal beads, and her veil of French illusion was held by a pillbox headpiece similarly encrusted. The bride carried a white Bible decorated with white roses, Stephanotis and ivy.

Shirley Bolus of Farmington was elected to serve as maid of honor. Her court included Lee Ann Turner, Bismah, Ontario; Elaine Newland, Franklin; and Christin Gauss, Detroit. They were gowned in candlelight gold satin floor-length fashions, and wore pillbox headpieces of gold brocade and satin. A yellow and blue bouquet accented the ensemble.

NECES MARY Martha Beck and Nancy Katherine Marshall served as flower girls, and wore yellow silk organza floor-length dresses. The nephew of the bride, Daniel Deck, was ring bearer. Jim Hales of Chatham, Ontario, was elected to serve as best man.

Bedells Host Japanese, Indian Guests

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

The Glenn Bedells of Sylvan Lake invited to an international potluck supper on Jan. 18 Mr. and Mrs. Tsuyoshi Ito and Mrs. Keitaro Hamasaki of Japan; Dr. and Mrs. V. N. Samuel and Mrs. K. R. Krishnaya of India.

Rounding out the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Glen White of Crabtree Road, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yevich of Kenmore Road, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson McKenzie of Wing Lake, and the Kenneth Petersons and Wayne McKelveys of Pontiac.

The Ito and Hamasakis are presently living in Birmingham while Mr. Ito and Mr. Hamasaki are dividing their time between the Cranbrook School of Architecture and Minoru Yamasaki & Associates.

Ushers included Calvin Messing, Harbor Beach; Jim McFarlane, Montreal, Quebec; Bob Demers, Windsor, Ontario.

The bride's mother wore a bristol blue antique satin floor-length gown, while the groom's mother was dressed in a floor-length gown of Venetian pink peau de soie enhanced by a gold embroidered bodice.

Following a reception at the Whittier Hotel, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Canada. They will make their home in Windsor.

DR. SAMUEL and Dr. Krishnaya are studying at hospitals in Pontiac.

A potluck supper with such a guest list was bound to be exciting. To an American menu climaxed by a blueberry pudding were added chicken biryani, puree and dhal, bean cake, and suni, a cold dish of rice, hard-boiled eggs and ginger.

After supper, the Bedells showed slides of Japan taken during the five years they lived in the Tokyo area.

This past week end, they entertained Jong Has-Woo of Seoul, Korea, who is doing postgraduate work at the University of Michigan.

ONE of the year's highlights for the Walnut Lake Women's Club is the musical evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Phelps. Members will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Phelps, 2420 Walnut Lake Road.

Guest soloist will be soprano Jean Aiken Quatto (Mrs. Joseph Quatto) who will give an international program of English, Scottish and Portuguese songs.

Dr. and Mrs. Phelps will play three duets, he on the organ, she on the piano.

There also will be a girl's sextet from Trinity Methodist Church in Highland Park.

Serving on the tea committee are Mrs. A. L. Latham and Mrs. A. Dowd under chairman, Mrs. E. O. Jacobson.

The afternoon bridge group of the New England Estates Women's Association will meet Tuesday at noon at the home of Mrs. Donn Juhl, 4190 Blackburn Drive.

THE FIRST annual dinner-dance of the Kirkwood Improvement Association drew 75 couples to the American Legion Hall in Berkeley Saturday night. Phil Cole's orchestra played for dancing.

Jack Ware of Sutters Lane was chairman of the committee in charge of the affair. Assisting him were Mrs. Ernest Efimoff, George Resnor and Paul Walters.

MRS. WILLIAM Higdon, Mrs. James Martin, Mr. Gordon Powell and Mr. Harry Lovell were elected to the board of the Brues Three Association at the annual meeting Jan. 18.

They join Mr. Willard McPhee, Mr. George Bywater and Mr. Gerald Mats on the seven-man board.

MISS PHILLIPS

Wedding Bells

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roswell Phillips, 312 Pleasant Avenue, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne Wendell, to David Edward MacDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milton MacDougall of Beechwood Drive, Birmingham.

The bride-elect is a senior at Western College for Women in Oxford, Ohio. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wis., and is attending Miami University in Oxford.

The young couple plan an Aug. 15 wedding at Birmingham's First Presbyterian Church.

Look for the handy new INDEX in your 1964 North Woodward Area Yellow Pages!

Shopping the Yellow Pages way will now be faster and easier than ever before. For now there's a handy cross reference Index at the beginning of your new Yellow Pages... to show you exactly how everything is listed, and how to find it fast.

Even gives you the page number to turn to! Suppose you want to rent a tuxedo for the big party coming up. No need to wonder if the Yellow Pages calls it a tuxedo, a dress suit, or a dinner jacket. Just look in the Index for the first heading that occurs to you... "Tuxedo Renting," for example. The Index will refer you to the correct classification ("Dress Suit Renting") and will tell you the page you'll find it on.

Turn there and presto!... a complete list of all the rental shops in your area.

Speed your shopping. Always look first in the new Index of your Yellow Pages.
