

No Twinge Of Conscience

Here's a chance to play bridge, canasta or pinchle for five hours Wednesday, Feb. 5, with no twinges of conscience.

The Lake School, West Long Lake Road, is holding a double-session benefit card party (desserts included) at the school, proceeds to be used to buy books for the school library.

The afternoon session will be from 1 to 3:30; the evening session from 8 to 10:45.

Members of the library committee in charge of the event are Mrs. A. W. Bickley of Barnaby Ct. and Mrs. Warren Perlstein of Worcester Drive.

Twins Born

Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson (Judith Ann Nash of Bloomfield Hills) of the Hague, Netherlands, announce the birth of twins, Frederick Dana and Kathryn Jeanne, Jan. 21. The babies' maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Nash of Bloomfield Hills, and their uncle and aunt are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin of Lake Orion.

Bridal Pair to Live in Florida

Airman 1/2 and Mrs. Carleton Wallace McCrindle are temporarily making their home in Panama City, Fla., awaiting shipment to the Philippines for two years in April.

Formerly Mary Lynn Muma, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Russell, Glengary Road, Birmingham, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCrindle of Rapid City.

The couple repeated their marriage vows Saturday in the chapel of the First Methodist Church, with Dr. Arnold Runkel officiating.

The bride wore a gown of sheerest silk taffeta fashioned with a fitted waist, highlighted by a jeweled motif, bell skirt and chapel train. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a tiny pill box of matching material, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Penny Lee Russell was her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids included Jane Ann Russell, another sister; Gayle McGrindle, sister of the bridegroom, and Marilyn Embury of Birmingham. They all wore gowns of romantic blue embossed taffeta and carried white carnations, roses and eucalyptus.

Robert K. Russell, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man, and seating the guests were Donald V. Smith of Clarkston; Jimmie D. Long of Holly and Gary Cooper of Detroit.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlors.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Thursday, January 30, 1964

Perhaps you've done something today that you are not proud of, an unkind word or act, or it may be an opportunity to help another that you passed by. Your regret is proof that your real, true self possesses the desire to be a Good Samaritan. It should then stimulate you to act on your inherent wanting to be kind, in both word and deed. So don't allow regret to scold and scar your "better self".

Incoming, Outgoing for Franklin

Members of the Franklin Community Association recently elected George Howard as their new president, Mr. Howard filling the shoes of Dr. John Burger. The two prexies got together last week in Dr. Burger's home on Telegraph Road to plot this year's course of action. Their wives were in on the act, too. From left it's Dr. Burger, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Burger and Mr. Howard.

WNFGA Plays Host To Mrs. Ullenkreeck

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

The Wing Lake Shores branch of WNFGA were co-sponsors with the Westchester branch for a meeting held recently at the Community House. Members of the North Suburban branches met to hear a talk by Mrs. W. F. Ullenkreeck, recipient of a Frysaier fellowship.

Mrs. Frank W. Kussy, president of the Wing Lake Shores branch, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ullenkreeck, the co-sponsors and the co-chairmen in her home for luncheon preceding the lecture.

Mrs. Lee Carter, Mrs. Dale Hill, Mrs. Albert Carr and Mrs. Earl E. Weston assisted Mrs. Kussy. Branch members who aided in the tea preparations were Mrs. E. C. Thorne, Mrs. Mark Neilsen and Mrs. Glen Berry.

The Grace Frysaier fellowship, an international exchange program, enabled Mrs. Ullenkreeck to spend the fall of 1963 in the Netherlands, living with the people and visiting every province in the country. Mrs. Kussy coached Mrs. Ullenkreeck in the Dutch language before she left last fall, so that she could gain more from her trip.

RECENT HOUSE GUESTS of the Robert Wood family of Blanford Court have been Mr. Wood's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wood and daughter, Cathy, 9, of Buenos Aires, Argentina and most recently Mexico City.

They arrived for the long weekend laden with gifts from south of the border for the Woods and their three children. During their short visit, the two families are making plans for a reunion in Mexico City in the future.

Mardi Gras Theme Chosen For Church Dinner-Dance

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1852

A "Mardi Gras" theme was chosen for the first social event for members of St. Thomas More Catholic Church on North Adams Road to be held Saturday evening. The 125 area couples planning to attend the get-acquainted dinner-dance at Orchard Lake Country Club will find it decorated in a blaze of color.

The entrance is decorated with a wrought iron effect of New Orleans. Panels of color and glitter, clusters of balloons, French labels, posters, groupings of unusual wine bottles and mask-designed name tags, will add to the Mardi Gras decor.

Music by Ray Brandt will give the party the finishing touch. Joining in the fun will be the social chairman of the event, Mr. and Mrs. James Bent of Rock Spring Road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newham, Jr., of E. Valley Chase Road.

Everyone attending the dinner-dance will be invited to one of five areas "bring your own shaker" parties before departing to the club. These parties will be hosted by the Robert Dayes of E. Valley Chase Road, the Bruce Dempseys of Hyland Drive, the Keith Ackleys of Northover Drive, the Don MacLarena of N. Valley Chase Road and the Eugene Swans of Hawthorne Road.

MANY NEW families have been moving into the North Adams area in the past few weeks. The Eugene Foxworthys moved into their home on Tullamore Drive just before the Christmas season. Their move was from Montvale, N. J. They have three children, Sherry, 16, a student at pleasure trip to New Orleans are Dr. and Mrs. Ed Westfall of Echo Road. Accompanying the Westfalls were Dr. and Mrs. Donald Albert and Dr. and Mrs. Edson Rupp, both of Royal Oak.

While Dr. Westfall attended an American College of Physicians course, Mrs. Westfall and the other wives enjoyed the warmer climate, shopping and some sight-seeing. The couples drove to Chicago for a stop over and then returned to New Orleans.

HOME FROM a recent ski week end are the Arthur Ericksons and children, Nita and Randy, of Kentmoor Road. Joining them was Randy's friend, Russell Slade of Kentmor Road.

They were house guests of relatives, Dr. and Mrs. William Kite, while they skied at Kalkaska and other northern Michigan slopes. The Ericksons are planning a return week end trip for more skiing later in the season.

MRS. TONY SPINA of Squirrel Road got the surprise of her life when she walked in the door of her home to find her family and a group of friends waiting to celebrate her birthday on a recent Friday evening. In the group were the George Joneses of Dowling Road, the Sam Vetrainos of Bayburn Drive, the William Tehoys and children, Bill and Diana, of Valley Hill Drive.

The Eastover School PTO is sponsoring its annual "Book Fair" to benefit the school library.

The fair, located in the school library, will be open for business during school hours through Feb. 7. Parents and friends also may be able to purchase books during the Eastover PTO meeting on Monday evening.
