REDEEMER WOMEN HOLD FASHION SHOW

The annual fashion show and sales for the benefit of the Women’s Society and of the Historical Society of the Church at the Reese-Church Building will be held Thursday [date].

The event, which took place earlier, will feature a wide variety of clothing and accessories. The proceeds will support the Historical Society’s efforts to preserve and promote the rich history of the church community.

NORTHMINSTER SPONSORS ‘GREAT DECISIONS’ STUDY

During the months of Feb 10 through March 20, Northminster Presbyterian Church will sponsor ‘Great Decisions,’ a program of former United States Senators conducting a series of informational forums and discussions on United States national security issues. The annual program is prepared jointly by the Foreign Policy Association, a nonpartisan, non-profit educational agency. Each month the Senate considers the most important decisions we face as a nation and as citizens in the present and future.

MEETING ONCE a week for eight weeks and using the Project Kit, with mailing lists and discussion materials, you will have the opportunity to think through complex and current issues in American politics and the global stage.

The first session is open to the public. There is a suggested donation of $5.00 for the year’s schedule.

SERIES OF SERMONS ON 1ST AND 5TH SATURDAY

A fresh look at Christianity from the viewpoint of the church’s laypeople marks a series of Sunday morning sermons at St. James Church, Birmingham. The preacher, Rev. Dr. James L. Ammon, will begin the service on Jan 1, with “The New Year—A Time for Reflection.”

ST. JAMES PARISH EVEST & TO VESTY

Five members of St. James Parish were elected to the Vestry at the regular vestry meeting Monday. They are: Rev. Dr. James L. Ammon, rector; Col. Harry E. Sealy; Col. R. F. Cushing; Capt. John C. Smith; and Capt. John H. Jenney. The meeting was held in the parish hall.

New Educational Building Planned At St. Stephen’s

Plans for a new educational building were given partial approbation at the September 21 meeting of the Vestry. The building, with an estimated cost of $25,000, would house classrooms and offices for the church.

NEW BUILDING BREAKS GROUND

New Educational Building Planned At St. Stephen’s

Plans for a new educational building were given partial approbation at the September 21 meeting of the Vestry. The building, with an estimated cost of $25,000, would house classrooms and offices for the church.

WESLEY FILM SCHEDULED AT 1ST METHODIST

The Women’s Society of First Methodist Church will host a viewing of the film “Wesley Film” at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 17, in the parish hall.

The film, produced by the Southeastern United States, features the life and teachings of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism. The screening will be followed by a discussion and coffee hour.

DINNER preceding the evening event will be served in the parish hall.

RESERVATIONS required for the film screening are available from the Women’s Society. For more information, call the church office or visit the Women’s Society page on the church website.

ST. JAMES CHURCH, Birmingham, held its annual Evensong service on Sunday, March 6. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. James L. Ammon, rector of St. James Church. The service was attended by many members of the church community.

The service included prayers, hymns, and readings from the Bible. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Ammon, who spoke on the importance of faith and the need for spiritual renewal in our lives.

The Evensong service is an important part of the church’s weekly worship. It provides an opportunity for the congregation to gather together and receive spiritual nourishment.

THE REV. KENNETH H. Goss, rector of St. James Church, welcomed the congregation on the Sunday morning. The church, located at 1944 Grand Ave., is one of the oldest churches in the city of Birmingham.

The service concluded with the blessing of the congregation and the singing of a final hymn.

Perform Consecration Ceremony at St. James

Following these three services, the congregation was presented with the newly consecrated altar. The altar was blessed in a special ceremony led by the Rev. Dr. Ammon. The altar is an important symbol of the church’s commitment to the spiritual well-being of its members.

BELMONT CHURCH, Birmingham, held its annual Evensong service on Sunday, March 6. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ammon, who spoke on the importance of faith and the need for spiritual renewal in our lives.

The Rev. Dr. Ammon delivered the sermon, which focused on the themes of faith, love, and community. The service concluded with the singing of a final hymn.

First Baptist Church

First Baptist Church, Birmingham, held its annual Evensong service on Sunday, March 6. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ammon, who spoke on the importance of faith and the need for spiritual renewal in our lives.

The Rev. Dr. Ammon delivered the sermon, which focused on the themes of faith, love, and community. The service concluded with the singing of a final hymn.

First Baptist Church

First Baptist Church, Birmingham, held its annual Evensong service on Sunday, March 6. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ammon, who spoke on the importance of faith and the need for spiritual renewal in our lives.

The Rev. Dr. Ammon delivered the sermon, which focused on the themes of faith, love, and community. The service concluded with the singing of a final hymn.

First Baptist Church

First Baptist Church, Birmingham, held its annual Evensong service on Sunday, March 6. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ammon, who spoke on the importance of faith and the need for spiritual renewal in our lives.

The Rev. Dr. Ammon delivered the sermon, which focused on the themes of faith, love, and community. The service concluded with the singing of a final hymn.