Eccentricities

(Continued from 1-B)

Our car wouldn't have a floor full of tobacco where our pipe fell off the dash board during a period of non-use. And yet without a pipe how could we show the girls that we are college men, and what device would we use when we wanted to think before answering a question, if we couldn't sit back and slowly light up our pipe. Well, I hope the medical profession isn't too rash in condemning pipes because I still have a dinner full of leftover Christmas matches.

10 YEARS AGO

Jan. 19, 1948

By Overseas militaries. The overseas military committee of the city-sponsored water afforestation program and an immediate start on a new high school in the county are among the improvements announced for the remainder of the coming year. The committee met this week and the report was made to the city council. The report was then submitted to the city council, which voted to approve the project.

Hawaiian Maneuver

Involves Local
Army Sergeant

Mrs. Marta T. Kendall, of 301 East 3rd Street, Birmingham, has been asked to be a member of the board of directors of the American Red Cross. She will be one of the board of directors of the American Red Cross, and will serve on the board of directors of the American Red Cross, and will serve in that capacity in the city of Birmingham.

GM Ad Director

Is AMA Speaker

Gail Austin, director of advertising and market research for General Motors Corp., will be the featured speaker at the annual meeting of the American Marketing Association in New York City on February 28. She will address the theme "How to Sell Your Product," and will speak on the subject of advertising, the most important factor in the selling of products. Austin will speak on the subject of advertising, the most important factor in the selling of products.

Legal Notices

Happenings

(Continued from 1-B)

accept the contract, Mr. Candall, of Birmingham, was sentenced to two years in prison. He was allowed to remain in the county jail pending the appeal of his case.

With an announcement that the company will build a new plant in the city, Birmingham Mayor John T. Smith said the new plant will be the first of its kind in the state. The mayor said the company will invest $500,000 in the new plant, which will be completed in 1949.

10 YEARS AGO

Jan. 19, 1948

By Overseas militaries. The overseas military committee of the city-sponsored water afforestation program and an immediate start on a new high school in the county are among the improvements announced for the remainder of the coming year. The committee met this week and the report was made to the city council. The report was then submitted to the city council, which voted to approve the project.

10 YEARS AGO

Jan. 19, 1948

By Overseas militaries. The overseas military committee of the city-sponsored water afforestation program and an immediate start on a new high school in the county are among the improvements announced for the remainder of the coming year. The committee met this week and the report was made to the city council. The report was then submitted to the city council, which voted to approve the project.

We say "practically free" because when you add the cost of printing, this check runs about 9/10 of a cent.

However, Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank carries no service charge on personal checking accounts—if your balance is $50 or more.

For business checking accounts the minimum balance for no service charge is $1,000.

... in our book, that's "practically free."

Compare this to the cost of other checking accounts.

We think you'll find our plan to your advantage.

If you'd like to open a checking or savings account with us, drop in.

We're right in the heart of Birmingham, corner of Martin and Bates.

If you're busy during the week, come in on Saturday. We're open until noon.