International 'Fellows' Honored by AAUW

International Fellowships, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, enable American women to study or do research throughout the world. The fellowship, which is valued at $5,000, is awarded to women who have demonstrated academic excellence and leadership potential.

The fellowship is open to women who have completed at least one year of graduate study and who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement. The fellowship is funded by the American Association of University Women and the Ford Foundation.

The fellowship is designed to support women pursuing advanced degrees in fields such as science, mathematics, engineering, and technology. It provides financial support for tuition, fees, and living expenses.

Eligibility Requirements:
- Must be a citizen of the United States
- Must have completed at least one year of graduate study
- Must have demonstrated academic excellence and leadership potential
- Must have a demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion

How to Apply:
Applications for the International Fellowship are available on the American Association of University Women website. The application deadline is typically in February of each year.

Contact Information:
For more information about the International Fellowship, please contact the American Association of University Women at 202-785-0500 or info@aauw.org.
