ing Michigan's McNamara and Hart. Yet there were a few staunch Democrats who opposed most of those same measures, including McClellan of Arkansas; Russell and Talmadge of Georgia; Eastland and Stennis of Mississippi; Ervin of North Carolina; Lausche of Ohio; Thurmond of South Carolina; Tower of Texas; Boyd and Robertson of Virginia; Proxmire of Wisconsin. These figures were ascertained by The Americans for Constitutional Action. Most Republicans, of course, opposed the bills.

It's reported from Washington that Chief Justice Earl Warren told congressmen that inscribing the words "In God We Trust" over the Supreme Court Building facade "would mar the symmetry of his court." The court already has abolished prayer in the public schools; is it possible that one of its decisions some day may outlaw Deity from our universe?

Why not clip the following paragraph and place it where you and the members of your family may read it often? Here 'tis: Years ago, when James Russell Lowell was the American

Completes Training At Lackland AFB

Airman John M. Mock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Mock of 898 N. Adams Road, Birmingham, has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Airman Mack has been selected for technical training as an accounting and finance specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Sheppard AFB, Tex. His new unit is part of the ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

minister to Great Britain, he was asked: "How long will the American Republic endure?" His answer was crisp and to the point: "As long," he said, "as the ideas of the men who made it continue to be dominant?"

It's claimed that the Democrats will spend twenty millions and the Republicans about 14 millions on the present campaign. Golly, if these costs keep on climbing, may be both parties will have to get help from the anti-poverty funds.

First Shoplifting Program Monday

Birmingham retail merchants will attend the opening session of a shoplifting control program at 9:30 a.m. Monday in the Tower Room of the Birmingham Hoasa Motel.

The program is sponsored by the chamber of commerce, with the cooperation of the police department.

This first session, it was explained, is for owners and managers of retail establishments in the area. Two other meetings—on Tuesday and Wednesday at The Community House—will be for store employees. A similar program will be presented.

B'ham Candy Store Robbed of $300

An estimated $300 in bills and change was taken from a Birmingham candy store last Thursday evening.

Police said someone gained entrance to the Albert Shetz Candy Co., 820 S. Woodward, by removing the molding and prying a pane from an overhead door at the rear of the building. The money was taken from a cash register.

Vocational Night Slated at Groves

The Birmingham Guidance Council will sponsor a Vocational School Opportunity Night at Groves High School next Thursday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Students and parents will have an opportunity to talk informally with representatives from schools offering programs not leading to four-year degrees. Further information may be obtained from Seaholm counselor Don Laatsch.
