NEWS OF THE SCHOOLS
Six Bloomfield Hills Students Return from Foreign Trips

By KAREN TRIMMER, Special Writer

Six Bloomfield Hills students made trips to Europe and Asia this past summer in programs sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches and the American Field Service.

Sue Wiant spent her summer in Sweden bringing with two different families while Debra Martin visited Germany, making trips to both France and East Berlin during her stay.

Jacquie Cochran spent eight weeks of her summer in the Historical Museum of Hameenlinna, Finland, also attending the Seventh World Pentecostal Conference.

WHILE ON her visit to Holland, Joyce Gedelman had the opportunity to tour Western Europe for nearly 10 weeks. And both Carol Chave and Barb Calhoun spent their summer months in Japan; Carol in Tokyo, and Barb in Yokohama.

Two BHHS boys, Greg Lau and Kirk Falvy, participated in the Wolverine Boy's State at Lansing this past summer. Boy's State is held annually at Michigan State University with over 1,167 boys from all over Michigan setting up their own government.

Kingswood Seniors Get Ranges

By MARY JANE HILDER, Special Writer

Kingswood is proud that this year's senior class contains four semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholar competition.

Yvette Daunic, Betty Brown, Sally Simons and Berta Krause, were chosen from among the top students in the country and are now eligible to become finalists and National Merit Scholars.

The traditional Senior Ring Ceremony took place on Sept. 25. The rings were presented to the class by Mrs. Elizabeth Daunic. The ceremony was followed by a luncheon for the seniors and invited guests at Devon Gables.

ning their first year at BHHS were French instructor Mrs. Jacqueline Noonan, Spanish teacher, Mr. Tom Hughes and Mrs. Griffin in the art field.

The science department added Miss Karen Zerwick, chemistry; Miss Tobie Hall, biology; Mrs. Lorraine Sharp and Miss Marilyn Bright are new in the English wing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dugan, another new face at BHHS, will teach commercial this year which will include business math, a new course at BHHS.

Girls are looking forward to the many fall sports which are being planned by the Girls' Athletic Association. Intramural sports, including field hockey and soccer, are eligible to participate in one or more of these sports.

POWDER PUFF Football will again be played this year. A tournament will involve sophomores playing the juniors with the seniors challenging the winners for the "Gold Shoe."

Be what you are. This is the first step toward becoming better than you are.

Holy Name Parents Meet New Superior

Parents and children in Holy Name School welcomed Mother Nicholas for her first year as Superior of the school.

Official introduction of Mother Nicholas took place at a parent-faculty tea and reception Sunday at Holy Name auditorium.

A COMMITTEE of the Holy Name PTO Board, arranged the reception, headed by Mrs. John F. Kelly, assisted by Mrs. John E. Ryan and Mrs. Joseph Odenweller.

Others who assisted with the arrangements were Mrs. Harry Winston, Jr., Mrs. Richard Morris, Mrs. Donald Byerlein, Mrs. John Nevin and Mrs. William Mullen.

Mother Nicholas has come to Birmingham from St. Mary's of Redford school. With her to meet the parents were nine sisters and five new lay teachers who have been added to the Holy Name faculty this year.

PARENTS IN St. Regis, St. Owen and St. Thomas More parishes who have children in Holy Name School had a chance to meet Mother Nicholas and the other new faculty members.
