Elect Student Council At B'field Junior High

By HARRIETT FOX
Special Writer

School opened early this year on Tuesday, Sept. 8, with loud cries of greetings, the usual amount of lost students and several yawns from those of us unaccustomed to getting up so early.

There are 807 students at Bloomfield this year, which is 109 more than the '63-'64 school year. We have teachers too, 42 to be exact, and for 11 it is their first year here.

Three of the newcomers are in the English department; Mr. Purcell, Miss Root and Mr. Zahrt, who also teaches geography.

THE OTHER teachers are, Mrs. Brunko, math; Mrs. Garabrant, social studies and French; Mrs. Goldman, junior business training and social studies; Miss Hines, home economics; Miss Kaiser, physical education; Mr. Koening, biology; Miss Rougon, Spanish; and Mr. Tangelorn, shop and drafting. Mr. Watan will join Mr. Cavins as a counselor.

Student Council representatives were elected Thursday, Sept. 17. The executives of the council were elected last spring.

The new president is Jeff Baldwin; vice president, Chip Smith; secretary, Gerrit Dunn. The treasurer was elected from the seventh grade representatives at the first meeting. She is Julie Meunier.

BOTH THE football and soccer coaches are preparing their teams for the first games. Our 11 Lancer football players will meet their first opponents, Wallke Lake on Oct. 7. Here's hoping both will have successful seasons!

Groves AFS Club Slates Pancake Night

By DIANA KRONEMAN

The AFS Club is sponsoring a Pancake Supper in the school cafeteria on Friday, Oct. 2, from 5:30 p.m.

After the supper Groves will play host to the Franklin-Livonia football team at the Seaboard Field at 7 p.m. Following the game the Groves cheerleaders will sponsor a sock-hop.

The Senior Class held a meeting Sept. 28 to discuss activities for the coming year. Senior pictures were taken on Sept. 23, 24, 25 and 26.

AN ORIENTATION program was held Tuesday, Sept. 15. Our principal, Mr. Lundy, welcomed the students and faculty. Twenty-one new teachers were presented.

Our three foreign exchange students introduced themselves to the student body. They are Reka Mehra, from India, Robert Kelly from Scotland and Joachim Turloff from Germany.

B'field Country Day Welcomes 90 Pupils

By SUSAN JUDD
Special Writer

The start of the 1964-'65 year has brought many new students. With 90 new girls, BCDS begins its year of largest enrollment.

One of the most pleasing additions is Maj-Britt Tharlin of Sweden, our second foreign exchange student. A "first" is the tennis program now under way every Wednesday at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

The students were greeted by the achievements of manpower and bulldozer in the freshly-landscaped grounds. The lakefront is being graded to make preparations for new tennis courts.

THE MOTHERS' Get-Acquainted Tea was held on Tuesday, Sept. 27, at the school. The guests were greeted by Miss Sallis, the faculty and members of the student body. The new members of student council served food prepared by the girls.

Class Representatives Elected by Seaholmites

By KATHY PORTER
Special Writer

SHS Sophomores are adjusting quite well to the hurried and confusing schedule of high school life after only three weeks of experience behind them.

Within this short period of time they have elected various representatives and managed to unite, making themselves known as the Class of '67.

Running candidates for president of the class are Scott McEvoy and Bill Canning. Running under him are Nancy Abbott, Cindy Carlson, vice president; Sue Bauer, Kathy Van Thelen, secretary; and Mary Steere, Karen Senese as treasurer. Candidates for sophomore representatives to the senate are Colleen Kelley, Julie Clark, James Deke and Steve Bens.

THEN AT the other end of the ladder are the Seniors. Leading the Class of '66 are president Mike Koetke, vice president Loren Musick, secretary Andy Hall, treasurer Peggy Beier and senators John Kingscott and Betsy Griffith.

To entertain their guests, several of the students who had been about this summer showed slides of their travels.

THE AUSTRIAN countryside and the new friends Susie made there were the main points of Susan Judd's slides. Joan Nimmo and Jill Young brought with them slides of their European odyssey. With slides of her Swedish vacation, Mary Anne Hartzel, was next on the program. Mary Ellen Bergmoser and Candy Gielow showed pictures of their respective European tours.

Class Representatives Elected by Seaholmites

That only leaves the Juniors who are caught in between. Serving as class officers for the Juniors are Carl Swanson, president; Leslie Baird, vice president; Joyce Bears, secretary; Barb Johnson, treasurer; and senators Diane Zube and Barry Bates.

Oct. 6 is the date for the annual Newcomer's Dinner sponsored by Cleerone, Seaholm's ushering club. Cleerone members will act as "big brothers" and "big sisters" and accompany all Seaholmites new to the Birmingham system to a get acquainted dinner.

Cleerone members will also be stationed throughout the halls on the night of Oct. 10 to help the parents find their way around the school during Open House.

SEAHOLM SIT-UPONS are the big news in Pep club this year. The club has ordered about 500 of these white cushions. They have a maroon Maple leaf and Seaholm Maple written on top. These sit-upons will be very useful at football games to pad the bleachers. They sell for $1.
