BEVERLY HILLS Garden Club Announces Flower Show Winners

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Here they are as I promised last week, the winners of the Beverly Hills Garden Club flower show held on Sept. 22.

The champion of the blue ribbon winners in the horticulture division was Mrs. L. Everett Humphris of Redmere Road who took EIGHT first place awards.

Mrs. LeRoy Behnke of Wetherby Road did herself proud by winning four; Mrs. Donald Conrad of Beverly Road and Mrs. Robert McKee of Beechwood Avenue both took two; while Mrs. Anne Gray of Beechwood, Mrs. Vance Doyg of Wetherby, and Mrs. Waldron Templemayr of Kirkshire Road each won one blue ribbon.

First place winners in the artistic division were Mrs. Waldron Templemayr who won two prizes for her flower arrangements and Mrs. William Basse of Sheridan Drive who also took home two blue ribbons for her efforts.

High Mass Confirms Donigan-Allor Rites

Wedding vows united Mary Rose Donigan and Kenneth Lloyd Allor of Berkeley at a nuptial high mass Saturday in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church, Bloomfield Hills.

For the ceremony performed by Rev. Edward J. Wilk of St. Bede's Parish, the bride selected a silk organza gown by Galina fashioned with a detachable court train. Point d' Venise lace circled the fitted bodice and formed an Empire effect. The court train was appliqued with a border and aprays of lace. The skirt featured the new controlled silhouette.

A crown of silk organza petals and Point d' Venise lace rosettes held a bouffant veil of imported French Illusion. She carried a cascade of miniature white carnations set in ivy accented with white grapes and ivy trailing down the skirt.

Mothers Plan Dessert Bridge

Mrs. R. T. Armstrong and Mrs. Charles Heinen are co-chairmen of the Marian High School freshmen mothers benefit dessert-bridge, proceeds from which will benefit the library fund.

Mrs. William Mulcahy is in charge of decorating the school auditorium for the benefit which will be held Oct. 16 at 8 p.m.

Other chairmen are Mrs. Charles Young, refreshments; Mrs. Donald Clark, arrangements; Mrs. George Bird, prizes and Mrs. James Mitchell, tickets.

OTHERS WHO placed first were Mrs. John Musto of Beverly Road; Mrs. Donald Conrad; Mrs. Adam Nowicki of Dunblaine; Mrs. Norman Bodine of Chilton Drive; and Mrs. Otto Melke of Beverly Road.

Among the red ribbon winners in both divisions were Mrs. LeRoy Behnke, Mrs. L. Everett Humphris, Mrs. Waldron Templemayr, Mrs. G. R. Heinzman, Mrs. Ray Becker, Mrs. Darrell Mould, Mrs. Otto Melke, Mrs. Edwin Meinzing, Mr. Mrs. Donald Conrad and Mrs. James Gray.

According to the eight flower show judges who came from Detroit, Farmington, and Dearborn for the event, the show was exceptionally well organized, particularly since it was the club's first public effort.

Mrs. Gardner Herrick of Keller Lane held the winning ticket for the silver chafing dish which was given away at the show.

ANOTHER GARDEN club, the Valley Woods group, has been busy recently also readying their booths for the Harvest Festival Friday and Saturday at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

Mrs. John Bergman of Eastlady Drive had members and their husbands in one day last week to work on their game of chance and flower booths, rewarding all the willing workers with a delicious dinner in the evening.

PARENTS OF THE couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Hamilton of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. D. Lloyd Allor of Pennsauken, N. J., formerly of Birmingham.

Theodore Ostrowski of Detroit was maid of honor for the event. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Donigan, Judy Hruska, Sylvia Besh and the bride's sister Deborah Hamilton served as junior-ette bridesmaid.

The bridesmaids' floor-length dresses of ming georgette blue with fitted bodices were accented by emerald green velvet ribbon creating an Empire effect with petite pill boxes in matching ming georgette topped by fabric roses of Warwick Drive and Mrs. Ted Sura of Chilton Drive.

Cobhostesses were Mrs. Crego and Mrs. Robert Carley of Birmingham.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Van Every of Smallwood Court hosted a "dinner and surprise birthday party" in honor of his mother, Mrs. E. G. Van Every of Detroit, last Saturday evening.

Also invited were Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Don Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keel, and Mr. and Mrs. Shack Handy.

Last week the Van Every's drove to Midland to bring Sandra, who is a freshman at the Northwood Institute there, a cake for her 18th birthday.
