

PTA Notes

EDITOR'S NOTE: From now on, all PTA news emanating from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area will be included in this special column. All items, plus picture requests, must be cleared through special writer Mrs. John Hamilton, 1633 Bowers, Birmingham; telephone, MI 6-2832.

Meadow Lake

Two bicycles and a television set were door prizes at the Meadow Lake School Fair Sept. 26. Barney Tyler and Jerry Dickson headed the committee that organized game booths, white elephant sale, bake sale, refreshments and pony rides. Proceeds of the PTA sponsored event go for new equipment for the school.

Harlan

Dr. John B. Smith, superintendent of Birmingham public schools, introduced Don Weston, new principal at Harlan School, to parents attending the regular meeting of Harlan PTA Sept. 23, in the school. Mr. Weston in turn introduced Harlan teachers to the audience.

Mrs. James F. Hagen, chairman of Harlan PTA's Health, Safety and Welfare Committee, reported on the progress of the drive to lower the speed limit in front of the school on Adams Road. She plans to present petitions signed by Harlan area parents to the Oakland County Road Commission, Bloomfield Township Board and Troy City Commission.

Lathrup

Lathrup PTA had a "get acquainted" tea for teachers and home room mothers Sept. 29 in the school. The new silver tea service acquired by the trading stamp contest at Lathrup school was used for the first time.

Northbrook

Northbrook PTA, Southfield, will present three speakers from Special Services at their meeting in the school Oct. 6 at 8 p.m. Guest speakers will be Mrs. Edith Blake, director of Special Services for Southfield Board of Education; Mrs. Jane Robinson and Mrs. Truly Foster, school psychologists, and Joseph Neff, visiting teacher. They will describe the special services (such as speech correction) available and explain how the department functions.

Torry

Torry PTA board met Sept. 29 and voted to carry on the tradition of hosting a halloween party for Torry students the afternoon of Oct. 30. The board also approved the program for the year as submitted by Larry Fitzgerald, program chairman. The first regular PTA meeting will be "Dad's Night," an open house for dads, Nov. 10.

Ward Eagle

"Who Needs a Psychologist?" is the provocative topic chosen by Dr. Derek N. Nunney for his speech before the PTA of Ward Eagle School, Fourteen Mile and Middlebelt Road, at 8 p.m. Oct. 5. Dr. Nunney, an assistant professor of Education and Clinical Psychology at Wayne State Uni-

Christ Child Carnival Shows Fairy Tale World

The name of the Christ Child Carnival this year is a "Story Book Fantasy" and, aptly enough, the general chairman is Mrs. James T. Smith of Castle Drive.

The carnival will be held Thursday, October 22, in Cobo Hall. Featured will be a fashion show by Saks Fifth Avenue, assisting Mrs. Smith as co-chairmen are Mrs. Alandt of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Forrest Hamline, Jr., of Detroit and Mrs. Robert E. Reason of Old Mill Road, Birmingham.

The theme will be carried out in the various booths. Pandora's box is the gift wrap center; "Babies in Toyland" features hand-dressed infant of Prague statues as well as hand-dressed dolls and unusual toys; "Mother Hubbard's Cupboard" is the coffee and snack corner; "Sugar and Spice" is the candy booth; the Gingerbread House features home-baked breads and pastries; and "Treasure Island" is the white elephant booth.

This booth is headed by the Provisionals who number 72 this year. Christmas, Calendar and Fruit Cake are among the various other booths. Luncheon will be available at a minimum cost.

AMONG THE LOCAL women who are heading up various committees are Mrs. Hugh Ferguson, Lathrup Village; Mrs. John C. O'Sullivan, Orchard Lake; Mrs. Walter J. Ruessman, Mrs. Gene G. Green, Mrs. Robert E. Koch, and Mrs. James Buckley, Bloomfield Hills; and from Birmingham Mrs. Edmund T. Nolan, Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. John Ward, Mrs. Robert J. Fries, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. William Safar, Mrs. John S. Laica, Mrs. W. Joseph Gallagher, Mrs. Robert Mahler, Mrs. John Scholtz, Mrs. E. William Kenyon, Mrs. Paul M. Kanuit and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden.

versity, will discuss the emotional and social problems of the elementary school child, their causes and treatment.

Dr. Nunney has had a varied career as a teacher, and is certified by the State of Michigan as a Psychologist. He is president and founder of the Detroit Society of Programmed Instruction.

The opening meeting of the Eagle PTA will also feature an introduction to the faculty, but there will be no business meeting.

Barnum

Tonight at 8 p.m. Barnum Junior High School will hold its annual open house. At this time parents will have the opportunity to follow the actual schedule of their child conducted on an abbreviated scale by the school staff.

In addition, the PTA sets aside this night for its membership and fund raising drive. The money collected makes possible the purchase of special equipment and other aids for the benefit of Barnum students and the school.
