Gish-Jameson Rites Read In Birmingham

MRS. J. R. JAMESON

A doubling ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham united Barbara Jeanne Gish and James Russell Jameson.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Rollin E. Gish, 556 Puritan, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jameson of East Tawas.

The bride's Empire gown was designed of silk faille enhanced with a crystal and pearl beaded sash and chapel train. A silk faille pillbox secured her shoulder-length veil, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids.

MRS. JOHN D. Scharrre, sister of the bride from St. Marys, O., served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ralph Huggan, sister of the groom from Montrose, Mich., and Renee Ross of Bloomfield Hills.

They wore jadeite-hued floor-length gowns enhanced with a cluster of roses at the back waistline.

Thomas Howe of Saginaw served as best man; ushers were Ralph Duggan of Montrose, Rollin Gish III, brother of the bride. A reception at the Village Woman's Club followed the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride wore a red knit suit for her wedding trip to Canada. The newlyweds will make their home in Saginaw.

Winter Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Taggart Sinclair, 1508 Sodon Lake Drive, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Kathleen, to Donald Joseph Wood. Mr. Wood is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Eugene Wood, Indianapolis, Ind. Miss Sinclair was graduated magna cum laude from Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., where she became a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She is presently completing her studies for a master's degree in history of art at the University of Michigan. Mr. Wood graduated summa cum laude from Yale University, where he was admitted to the Phi Beta Kappa Society. He studied at the University in Munich during his junior year. Currently he is attending Balliol College, Oxford, England, to which he won a Rhodes scholarship at the completion of his Yale career. The wedding is planned for Dec. 28 in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Indianapolis.

Barbara Spencer, Charles K. Rhodes Married in East

Barbara Crane Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Spencer of Birmingham, became the bride of Charles Kirkham Rhodes in Cambridge, Mass., on Aug. 28.

The bride, a 1961 graduate of Seaholm High School, attended Lowell Junior College in Auburn, Mass., and was graduated from the Chandler School for Women in Boston.

Mr. Rhodes, a graduate of Cornell University, is currently studying for a Ph.D. in physics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cortlyn Rhodes of Chatham, N. J.

The couple are residing in Cambridge, Mass.
