Thomas Family, Neighbors Enjoy Walleye Barbecue

By MARION CASKEY

Lucky are the neighbors of the Ward Thomas family of Kirk Lane.

When the Thomases were at Lake Kabinakagami near Oba, Ont., they caught speckled trout, walleyes and northern pike gars, upon which they have been feasting their friends.

A week ago Sunday the Auchtetionie and Sullivan families were guests at a walleye barbecue entirely supplied by one afternoon's catch by 11- and 12-year-old Sally and Laura. The five-pound average fish were filleted and then baked in foil with onion and tomatoes in the manner learned at the camp.

After the succulent feast, the guests' envy was further fed with movies of the Thomas' vacation.

ONE OF THE most romantic husbands in Franklin must be Ott Schubert of Garden Way. For their 25th anniversary he treated his wife, Rita, to a vacation at the Royal Hawaiian hotel at Waikiki, Hawaii.

Their trip west also included a visit with Rita's sister in Glendale, Calif., and living it up in San Francisco and Las Vegas.

For their 50th wedding anniversary last Saturday, Mrs. Paul Lavrenz and her sister Mrs. Jack Trudgen of Livonia feted their parents, the Everett Thomasons of Detroit at an open house at the Lavrenz's Rosemond drive home. On hand were Eleanor's twin sister, Mrs. Len Barstow of Murray Hill, N.J. and brothers Everett, Jr., of Cascade, Mich., and Otto of Goddison, Mich., and their families.

AT THE HAROLD Rossano home on Inkster Road, another family reunion was prompted by the visit of Harold's two nieces from Mexico City, Lilia and Eugenia Montez.

The two young ladies spent a week with the Rossanos on their first visit to the United States. After gathering all the relatives for a backyard barbecue Sunday, the Rossanos then took the two young school teachers to Niagara Falls for the rest of the week.

The girls returned to Mexico to attend ceremonies for the dedication of a school to be named after their grandmother and Harold's aunt, Maria Rossano, who was a teacher for 50 years.

THE AREA Republicans have plucked a plum to present to the local voting populace this Friday night. Ely Peterson, candidate for U.S. Senate, will speak at a coffee at the Richard Van Dusen home on Bingham Road after a full day of campaigning in Oakland county.

Energetic Ely is certain to have plenty of vigor when she arrives at 8:30 and the hosting Republicans urge a big turn out of all interested voters to hear her.

IN PREPARATION for their Dorchester Hills dinner-dance Oct. 10 at Pine Knob, husbands and wives of the dance committee previewed the locale at a dinner meeting last Wednesday night at the resort.

Billed "The Lamplighter Ball," the dance will help to refill the empty coffers from which the subdivision purchased the handsome gas lamps which flanked all the road entrances.

The committee for the buffet dinner-dance is chaired by Chuck and Kaye Goudie with the Orland Ellises, Frank Paganos, James O'Niels, Joe Sembers and Don Julians completing the list. The dance will provide all Franklinites with a chance for brief seasons socializing.

COUPLES of the Franklin Garden club will meet tonight at 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyland, 30620 Telegraph Road. The program will include pictures by the Detroit Edison (See FRANKLIN, 6-CC)

The bride chose a gown of silk organza fashioned with a square neckline accented with Florentine lace. Her bouffant skirt featured a front scissor pleat and extended into a chapel length train with bows that extended from the waist to the hemline.

A HALF circle of silk organza and Florentine lace encrusted with seed pearls and self fabric rosebuds held her shoulder-length veil. The bridal flowers were white carnations and pink and white roses.

Sue Orrison was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Laurie Wotta and Sue Latva, all of Kalamazoo. The attendants wore rose-pink floor-length gowns with sheath skirts that fell into panels in the back. Bow headpieces held their short
