THE MEMBERSHIP and acquaintance committee (Mrs. Moses Lane, chairman) of the Kirkwood Improvement Association has sent out invitations to the 150 women in the subdivision to attend a getmorning a which 30 new residents will be introduced.

Because of the size of the party, the affair will be a progressive coffee held simultaneously at four homes on Kingsmill Drive. We're a little confused as to whether the mescomers, or the welcoming, 'old-mesco Mrs. Cane of 5634 Kingsmill, Mrs. John Katke in 5577, Mrs. At any rate, four women who will stay put are the hostesses Mrs. Lane of 5634 Kingsmill, Mrs. John Katke in 5577, Mrs. Robert Clifford in 5601, and Mrs. O. D. Thomas in 5623.

O. D. Thomas in 5623.

ONE NEWCOMER who must reluctantly decline is Mrs. Robert Beatz of 5672 Weodwind Drive who will be playing in a golf tournament at Bennythook Country Club that morning.
The Beatz family came to Kirkwood from S. Redford in July. Mrs. And Committee of the Country Club that morning. The Beatz family came to Kirkwood from S. Redford in July.
