At Thanksgiving, turkeys are given away to the lucky bowlers and at Christmas presents are awarded.

Bowling at the same time on Friday evenings at the Birmingham Bowl are other groups of North Adams residents.

MRS. SIMON Simonian of Lakecrest Drive opened her home on Wednesday afternoon for the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Guild Membership Tea.

Among those pouring at the table centered with an autumn arrangement were Mrs. M. D. Petrie of Pontiac, president of the guild and Mrs. Henry Larabee of Royal Oak, president of the Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club.

Week-end house guests visiting the William Franks of Beach Road were Mr. and Mrs. Erick Koebel of Flint, Mich.

IT WAS a complete "surprise" when Richard Doughton walked into his home on Brethry Drive on Monday evening to find Mrs. Doughton and 12 Charwood subdivision couples waiting to wish him a happy birthday.

After the initial shock was over, cocktails were served the group followed by dinner and an evening of fun.

The Ernest Millers and sons, Robert, Richard and Ronald, are newcomers to the Pine Hill Drive. Their move was from Mentor, O.

The two older boys are students at Eastover School. Mr. Miller is secretary of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. The family's interests include golf, bridge, music and sailing.

The Millers had house guests soon after their arrival. Spending a few days with them from Clearwater, Fla., was Mrs. Miller's father, Robert Gilderaleve. Their most recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Miller, parents of Miller from Mentor, O.

THE DONALD Strongs of Pittsfield, Mass., have recently moved to Wendover Road. Mr. Strong is employed at the General Electric. Their children are Mrs. William Book, living in Cambridge, Mass., and Betty, 16, attending Seaham High School; John, 14, a pupil at Derby Junior High; and Jeff, 12, a student at Michigan Senior High.

They are ski enthusiasts and are looking forward to Michigan winters.

The garden club's new slate of officers include president, Mrs. William Lee; vice president, Mrs. Harold Steig; secretary, Mrs. Howard McNabb; and treasurer, Mrs. John Stencel.

THE EDWARD Heins of Weathervane will be moving into their new home in Nottingham Forest in October.

Mrs. George Gaston of Upton Road hosted a dessert-bridge recently as a farewell to Mrs. Heins. The guest list included Thornwood friends and neighbors, Mrs. Frederick Maas, Mrs. Wallace Hudson, Mrs. Paul McNamara, Mrs. George Mally, Mrs. Joseph Montgomery and Mrs. Howard Spokes.

The Karl Zint, Jr., of Brookhaven Drive have house guests visiting them for two weeks. They are Mrs. Karl Zint, Sr., and daughter, Charlotte, of New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Junior Great Books is recruiting for both Franklin school and Berkshire. Those interested in the fifth and sixth grades should call Mrs. Paul Lawrence and for Berkshire, the leader to contact is Mrs. Ralph Sprenger.

NOW THAT Franklin School mothers have all had their room mothers' coffees, both parents can look forward to the "meet the teachers" nights at the school, Oct. 5 and 7. Kindergarten through third will be on Oct. 5 with fourth through sixth grades on Oct. 7 in the multi-purpose room.

With all the new families who moved in for the beginning of the school year, there will be lots of new faces at the PTA. On Nottingham are Dr. Seymour Gordon and his wife Marilyn.

They have three children in Franklin school, Nancy, 10, in fifth grade; Richard, 8, in third; and Carol, 7, in second. The Gordons moved from Detroit where Dr. Gordon practices. Since he has two brothers living in Franklin, Marvin and Harold, the Gordons don't feel like strangers.

MOVING IN the former Ford home on Hersheyvale are John and Sally Browning of Falls Church, Va. He is with the Raymond Concrete Pile Co.

They have three children, Julia, 4, and 6-month-old twins, John and Sarah. They would like to resume their hobby of skiing this winter but find the twins monopolize their spare time.

On Franklin Road are William and Mildred Neale who moved from South Rosedale in Detroit. They have one son, Dr. Robert B. Neale, who is interning at St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac.

Bob was married in June and is now living with his folks. William is with the N.Y., St. Louis and Chicago railroad. Mildred's hobby is gardening and she hopes to join the WNFGA here.
