

Sigma Kappas Plan Projects Into Winter

The South Oakland County alumnae of Sigma Kappa will have its second fall meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Haynes, 208 North Williamsbury, Birmingham. Hostesses are Mrs. Charles Hutton and Mrs. Thomas Kendal.

Mrs. Charles Hutton will discuss final plans to celebrate the 80th anniversary of the sorority's founding. All Sigma Kappas in the area are invited to attend founders day on Nov. 11 at the Coach and Four at Northland. Mrs. Hutton is taking reservations.

MRS. JULIUS LERCH, of Royal Oak, chairman of gathering toys and clothing for the national philanthropic project, the Marie Sea Coast Mission, is asking members to bring gifts to the October meeting. They must be gathered and mailed to insure reaching the children in time for Christmas.

Barbara Wallace of Bloomfield Hills, gerontology chairman, will present plans for the fall project to be given to Sherwood Hill in Royal Oak. Mrs. Albert Maas, of Bloomfield Hills, vice-president, has invited Mr. Lake of Lake's Jeweler's to be the speaker.

'Go' Fashion Day In Garden Future

Monday will be "GO" fashion day for members and guests of Countryside branch, WNFGA. Yellow mums combined with green plants and travel ideas will decorate the tables for the 12-30 salad luncheon and fashion show in the Federal Savings & Loan building, Maple and Lahser.

Chairmen for the luncheon are Mrs. Richard B. Weaver and Mrs. Brent Moffit. Don Thomas Sportsaus fashions will be modeled by club members Mrs. Robert Carrier, Mrs. William C. Gilday, Mrs. William C. Larkins, Mrs. William M. Kulas, Mrs. George H. Shaffer, Mrs. John P. Shupley, Mrs. James L. Slater and Mrs. Stephen M.weeney. Costumes will be created by Beverly.

Mrs. Vera E. Roper and Mrs. George H. Shaffer are in charge of decorations; Mrs. Herbert E. Irling is food chairman, and Mrs. Frank J. Ilea, Mrs. M. Edward Sewell and Mrs. Joseph K. Froehlich, reservations. Door prizes have been donated by the members.

A little old lady in Airways England, lives in a room two small for the baby carriage in which she wheeled her children, and which she cherishes. Storage charges on the baby carriage, with which she will not part, have cost her $500 over the past 16 years.

Women's Auxiliary Schedules Meeting

Wednesday is the date set for the next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society. The place will be the Fine Knob Resort. A buffet luncheon will be served at 12:30.

The Hon. Judge Philip Pratt will speak on "Family and the Law." Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. William H. Pierce, Mrs. Antonio G. Limia, and Mrs. Ralph R. Margulis.

Mrs. Townsend Receives Alpha Gamma Delta Award

By GLORIA JESSUP
LN A-6257
Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend of Orchard Bend Drive, recently received one of the highest honors bestowed by Alpha Gamma Delta. Presenting the award for the international sorority were Mrs. Carl Bleil and Mrs. James Theodoroff, both of Birmingham. Sponsor for Mrs. Townsend was Mrs. Harry Kinney, also of Birmingham.

The ceremony was held Sept. 18 at the home of Mrs. Paul King on Orchard Lake. A message of appreciation for Mrs. Townsend's outstanding contributions to the local alumnae groups was presented by Mrs. Burrell Richardson of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Richardson is president of the Detroit North Suburban Alumnae Club of Alpha Gamma Delta.

QUESTION: When is winning or not winning a football game important to a teen age boy?

Answer: when you are keeping your fingers crossed that GAIL COGILL will referee the game. That is the hope of all the football players from the Dells of Bloomfield and Knob Hill. The boys have been practicing diligently for the big game which will take place this Saturday on the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School football field.

Today, members of the Brookside branch of the WNFGA will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Galloway on South Pemberton Road. The ladies will conduct a workshop for their Christmas "greens market." They will also discuss plans for the forthcoming scholarship bridge luncheon to be held Oct. 22 at Edgewood Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Covert of Mill Spring Drive were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Carrick of Ranch Lane aboard the Carricks' cruiser, Rec Room II. The foursome cruised over to Canada where they attended a dinner and dance on Saturday evening.

THE BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS

branch, WNFGA, met last week recently in honor of Mrs. Sidney Hodgson, also of Quarten Road. Twenty-five ladies, all residents of Peabody Orchards, attended the bon voyage affair, at which time Mrs. Hodgson was presented with a silver bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson and their four children have been transferred to New Jersey after less than a year's residency in Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hinkley are chairman and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Reade are co-chairmen of the Dells of Bloomfield bridge tournament which just began the 1964-65 season. The 41 couples will play once a month for the next seven months with prizes being awarded at the annual spring dinner-dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mammen are new residents of Foxcroft.

Dried Flowers Topic For Garden Meeting

The Pembroke Manor branch of the WNFGA will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon Beatty, 8060 Manchester at 8:00 o'clock tonight. During the meeting Mrs. Charles Mentzer will speak on dried flowers.

They are former residents of Berea, O.

The Mammen children include Nancy, 16; Diane, 14; and Dave, 12.

Mr. Mammen is vice president and manager of the Birmingham branch of Midrum and Fawcett Advertising Agency.

He is a graduate of the University of Missouri.

For relaxation he enjoys doing ceramics and fishing. Mrs. Mammen has joined the Foxcroft Garden Club and is anticipating learning the art of weaving.
