Suburban Golfers Earn Top Spots

Suburban League golfers Jean Ford, Liz Franklin and Marion of the three flights, Helen McKerrill and Flo Cykowski grabbed the top spots in the first flight.

In the weekly battle for low net and low gross honors in the league's three flights, Helen McKerrill and Flo Cykowski grabbed the top spots in the first flight.

In second flight, June Springer scored low gross and Doris Switzer had low net, while in third flight, Jane Winegardner was low gross winner and Madeline Gladchum low net.

'Color Me Gone' Racer on Display at Hunter Dodge

Birmingham's Dick Branstner and driver Roger Lindamood, the combination that directed the Dodge dragster "Color Me Gone" to the top stock eliminator crown at the NHRA Summer Nationals in Indianapolis, will appear next week at Hunter Dodge.

"Color Me Gone", which has lost only one match race as of last month, will be on display from Monday through next Saturday in the Hunter Dodge showroom at 499 S. Hunter.

Branstner and Lindamood also appear. Their racer hit a top end speed of 127.84 mph at the Nationals.

Consultant Hired By Hills Schools

James T. Maunders, 6171 Idlewyde Road, Bloomfield Township, has been hired as a public relations consultant by the Bloomfield Hills School District.

Maunders will analyze and assist communications in an effort to keep the public informed as to what the school district is doing and hopes to do.

Maunders is married and has four children. He is a graduate of Yale University and has his own public relations and marketing consulting firm, which is located in Detroit.

Veteran defensive halfback Dick "Night Train" Lane of the Detroit Lions returned to the Detroit Lions defensive backfield just five weeks and one day after undergoing surgery on his knee.

Underwriter Given Charter Citation

Dennis J. Flynn, C.L.U., Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., has been awarded the coveted Chartered Life Underwriter designation at national conference of members of the American College of Life Underwriters in Cincinnati, O.

The American College of Life Underwriters grants the C.L.U. designation to persons in life and health insurance who pass a series of professional examinations and meet the experience and ethical requirements of the college. This year 1,100 men and women will be awarded the designation, bringing to 12,722 the number of people who have received it since the college was founded in 1927.

Flynn entered the life insurance field in 1959. In 1961, he received a degree in finance from the University of Detroit and is currently active in alumni affairs. He is a resident of Beverly Hills.
