Bingham Pushes Plans For Evergreen Sewers

By NITA HARD
Special Writer

BINGHAM FARMS—The council took decisive steps to implement a future with sewers for the village Monday night, but withheld action on several other matters rapidly becoming controversial.

Despite several appeals to stall the adoption of Step 2 in arrangements with the Evergreen interceptor sewer program until more information was circulated and more opinions heard, the council asserted its legal prerogative to approve Bingham Farm's participation in the construction of sewer lines up to the village limits.

Voters empowered the council to enter into such agreements with the sewer project several years ago. Nevertheless a public hearing was held last week in accordance with council policy to air issues publicly before making commitments.

ABOUT 20 property owners appeared Monday night and it was evident many felt the views expressed at the public hearing were not entirely representative of local feeling. Some simply had not understood the purpose of the hearing and others asked for more precise information.

Convinced that delay would only increase the cost of sewers to Bingham Farms and the issue would become more confused by further discussion, the council abruptly and unanimously dismissed consideration of an "informative letter" and approved Step 2.

Property owners were assessed earlier this year for Step 1, which merely assured them of a share in the capacity of the sewer, if and when they needed it.

Democrats Start Campaign for Funds, Workers

Oakland County Democrats launch their annual "Dollars for Dems," drive Friday to give the Democratic man-in-the-street an opportunity to contribute to his party's campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fisher of Oak Park, are co-chairmen of the drive, scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday Oct. 16, 17, and 18.

THE DRIVE is the single largest fund-raising source at the party's local and state level. Besides money contributions drive, drive officials seek commitments from volunteers to work in the campaign.

Mrs. Fisher said drive workers will contact personally — every Democrat in Oakland County in door-to-door campaign.

She described the drive as offering "an opportunity for every Oakland Democrat to play an important part in winning this year's elections."

prove the petition, Childs said Sun Oil would construct a station in character with the surrounding commercial architecture.

"WE WOULD like to sell our product at that location," Childs said. Although there are already four service stations in the Maple-Adams area, Childs said Sun Oil was "not afraid of competition."

"I have covered the area personally and question where you will draw the boundary line between residential and commercial."

"At the present time there is a residential home on the land. In 10 years or so something will have to be done with it and I doubt if another home would go up on that property," he said.

He said the construction of a service station would prevent the corner from becoming a blind intersection.
