'The Only Real Issue'

Timothy C. Quinn, circuit judge in Lapeer and Tuscola counties who seeks election to the new state court of appeals, visited Birmingham Friday. "It is vital that those qualified get elected to the court," Quinn told The Eccentric. "That's the only real issue in the campaign." He predicted that 70 to 75 per cent of the state's appeal cases will end with the new court, thus relieving the load on the state supreme court.

Students to Hear Court Candidate

Students for Johnson and Humphrey, composed of teen-agers interested in politics, are meeting Saturday at 1 p.m. to hear a speech by Thomas Giles Kavanagh of Beverly Hills, a candidate for the state Kavanagh will speak on the functions of the court at Democratic headquarters, 54 Washington St., Royal Oak.

Sarah App, 948 Madison, Birmingham, is chairman of the parent organization committee. The group is sponsoring a folk song festival Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. in the Kimball High School gymnasium as a fund-raising project for the Dalton Brothers, Kay Britton, Rovena, Phillip Esser and the Song Festers.
