Noon Rites Unite Pair At St. Bede's

MRS. G. R. WIDGEUR JR.

A wedding trip to New York and Nassau followed the noon rites which united Kathleen Mary Osborne and G. Russell Widgeur Jr. Saturday at St. Bede's Church in Southfield. The bride's uncle, Fr. Francis L. Osborne, performed the ceremony. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James M. Osborne, 28711 Sunset Blvd., Lathrup Village, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Russell Widgeur of Royal Oak.

The bride wore an Empire gown of romantic satin enhanced with crystal and pearl motifs on the bodice, while the sheath shirt was fashioned with a chapel-length train graced by streams of matching satin. Her veil was a Brussels lace mantilla, and she carried white carnations.

WEARING IDENTICAL floor-length Empire gowns designed with blue velvet bodices and turquoise chiffon skirts were Patricia Carell of Birmingham, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Joyce Ziarnik of Rochester and Gail and Mary Osborne, sisters of the bride.

Serving as best man was Richard Greenfield of Royal Oak. Ushers were Gary Christie of Oak Park, Richard Spohn of Clarkston and James Osborne, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Greenfield's Cranbrook Room. The newlyweds will make their home in Warren.
